

Comedy on the Coast Features Three Women

Comedy on the Coast is set for Sept. 19-20, featuring a trio of comedians in a 90-minute show. Kat Simmons will be the opening act, with Susan Rice as the featured comedian and Pam Matteson as the headliner.

Kat Simmons is a veteran of the national comedy club circuit. You may have seen her at The Improv or Catch A Rising Star, or on television's Comedy Channel, Fox's Comedy Tonight, or on Candid Camera. She has opened for Tim Allen, Diane Ford, and Kenny Rogers.

Simmons has a unique talent for combining physical comedy with real-life situations that everyone can relate to. She's been favorably compared to the masters of the craft, Lucille Ball and Carol Burnett. You may recognize yourself in her material as she honestly shares with the audience as though they were all long-time friends. When not on the road, she produces and hosts her own show at The Carson Valley Inn in Minden, Nev., called Comedy Night Live. She'll celebrate her 10th anniversary for this popular home-based show this year.

Susan Rice is funny, familiar, and female. People consider her part of the family. Rice twists daily experiences so that you walk away with a whole new perspective on your own relatives.

Rice, a Pacific Northwest native, began her comedy career in college. Her love of performing arts began in San Diego then on to Portland, Ore., where she worked in banking and pursued acting. She discovered comedy in a little pub called the Leaky Roof Tavern and from the moment she stepped on stage, she knew she'd found her career.

For 15 years, she's been a professional stand-up comedian and has performed in every state of the union and to every state of mind. Television appearances include An Evening at the Improv, Comedy Central, and Comedy Club Network. Comedy club bookings include Catch a Rising Star, The Ice House, Indianapolis Comedy Connection, Igby's, The Laff Stops, The Improve, and The Laugh Factory.

After witnessing Pam Matteson's hysterical vocal impressions and side-splitting stand-up comedy, one comes away from her performance wondering exactly which stage, film, or television star she does not impersonate.

The multi-talented Matteson has been bringing down the house with outrageous imitations of some of show business' greatest legends, including a duet by Judy Garland and Goldie Hawn and a raucous rendition of Rock-A-Bye Baby by Whitney Houston. Matteson doing Lauper doing Girls Just Want To Whine is a classic, as is Cher's uproarious Tongue Aerobics (complete with barbell!).

Matteson brings to each performance a powerful assortment of legendary theatrical favorites such as Liza Minelli, Bette Davis, Meryl Streep, and Debra Winger, as well as musical favorites Olivia Newton-John, Bernadette Peters, Pat Benetar, and Dionne Warwick.

She has appeared on The Tonight Show, An Evening at the Improv, Comic Strip Live, Fox's Sunday Comics, and Showtime's Pair of Jokers.

Matteson brings us all the once and future legends, the wild and wacky women who have filled the screen for the past 50 years. Just think of her as a sexy, singing, one-woman film festival!

Doors open at 7:30 p.m.; show time is 8 p.m. A no-host bar will be available. Tickets, priced at $12, are available at the box office.
