

TRIBAL MEMBER NEWS

Lisa Norton presents a check to Divona Christiansen.

Childhood Drawings Help Christiansen Open Own Business

Divona Christiansen has opened DMC Drafting Services with the help of a loan from the Business Loan Program through the Business Information Center.

Divona's business is based in Lebanon, Ore. She does technical drawings of mills to keep them up to date and safe. Electricians then use her drawings to wire a new or rewire an existing building and set up the entire electrical system. She currently is on contract with Weyerhaeuser in Albany.

Divona has been in the drafting business for 15 years. "I always liked drawing as a child, but with freehand (drawing), you starve until you die, then become famous," she said. "I didn't want to go that route."

She took a drafting class in the eighth grade, liked it, and a career was born. She's available to work in a variety – paper, metals, or wood – of manufacturing mills statewide. She does on-site and off-site contracting.

"People should give me a call because it's more direct and you get personal contact," Divona said. "It's just me. There's no chain of command or red tape to go through."

Divona started her business after completing the 11-week "Starting a Successful Business" course presented by ONABEN. She highly recommends it for anyone who is thinking about starting a business.

DMC Drafting Services is available at 541-258-6476 (evenings are best) or divona@proaxis.com.

Morrow Makes Dean's List at Oregon Coast Comm. College

Congratulations to Stephanie Morrow of Waldport, Ore., for making the Dean's List (3.50-3.74) at Oregon Coast Community College during the summer term 2003.

Students are recognized on the basis of grade point average (GPA) for six or more graded college credits.

She joins 28 other students on the Honor Roll for the summer term.

Medley Opens Motorsports Shop in Phoenix

Kristina Medley and fiancé Christopher Whalen recently received a loan from the Business Loan Program through the Business Information Center. Their business is called Hawkeye One Motorsports and they have plenty to offer when it comes to auto and truck accessories.

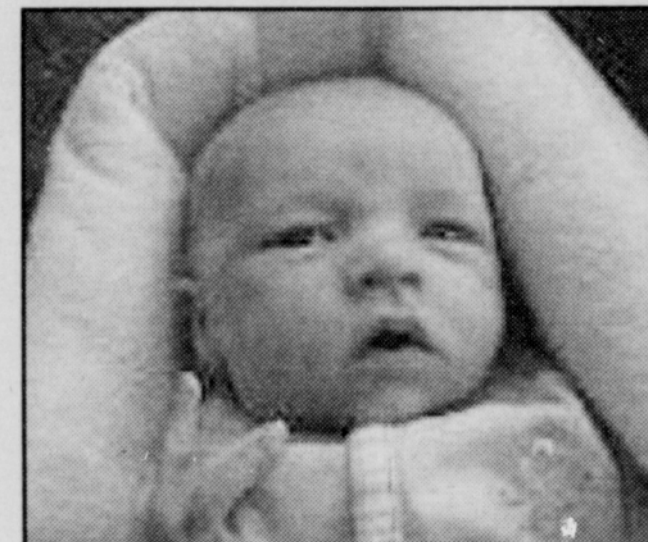

"We didn't want to just limit ourselves there. To survive the seasons, we offer a broad assortment for our customers' needs," said Kristina.

Hawkeye One Motorsports provides spray-on bed liners, truck accessories, window tinting, and for boats – wake boarding.

While Kristina is managing most of the front office, Christopher is busy in back installing their various accessories. But, Kristina added, she also lends a hand in back when needed.

Their shop is located in Phoenix, Ariz., at 4014 East Broadway Road, Suite 401. Although the shop is far away for some, Kristina says they'll gladly take telephone orders. You can reach them at 480-857-HAWK. Also soon to come is their own Web site that you can surf to order your own accessories. Be sure to check in soon at www.hawkeyeone.com.

Both Kristina and Christopher would like to express their appreciation and thank their families for all their support, as well as the tribe.

Brennan Alecsandr Soukup

Brennan Joins Soukup Family

Love, Grandma

I would like to welcome to our family a new addition. Brennan Alecsandr Soukup was born Aug. 16 to Mark and Jennifer Soukup. Welcome, Brennan.

Welcome Shay and Shawn Robertson, twin boys of Dale and Brenda Robertson

Tabietha Little, Chyann Payne, Leslie Schuler, and Natasha Williams show off the quilts they made in an elective class last year at Siletz School.