

The Rednecks are Coming! The Rednecks are Coming! Operation Redneck Tour, That Is!

On Oct. 24-25, the Operation Redneck tour featuring John Anderson, Confederate Railroad, and David Ball will perform at Chinook Winds Casino.

Country music fans know John Anderson as true to real country music and his instantly recognizable baritone voice sets him apart from many other country singers. Over the years, Anderson has engaged himself into his fan's hearts with top 10 hits like Seminole Wind, Bend It Until It Breaks, Money In The Bank, and many more leading all the way back to his first big hit, 1959.

His newest album, Mississippi Rainstorm, was released in July. For more than 20 years, Anderson has been putting out hits and, no, he's not about to stop anytime soon.

Confederate Railroad's high-energy style and raucous sense of humor has earned a lot of favorable comparisons to Lynyrd Skynyrd, Hank Williams Jr., and Charlie Daniels, but its energetic and sometimes sentimental music has carved out a spot in country music all its own.

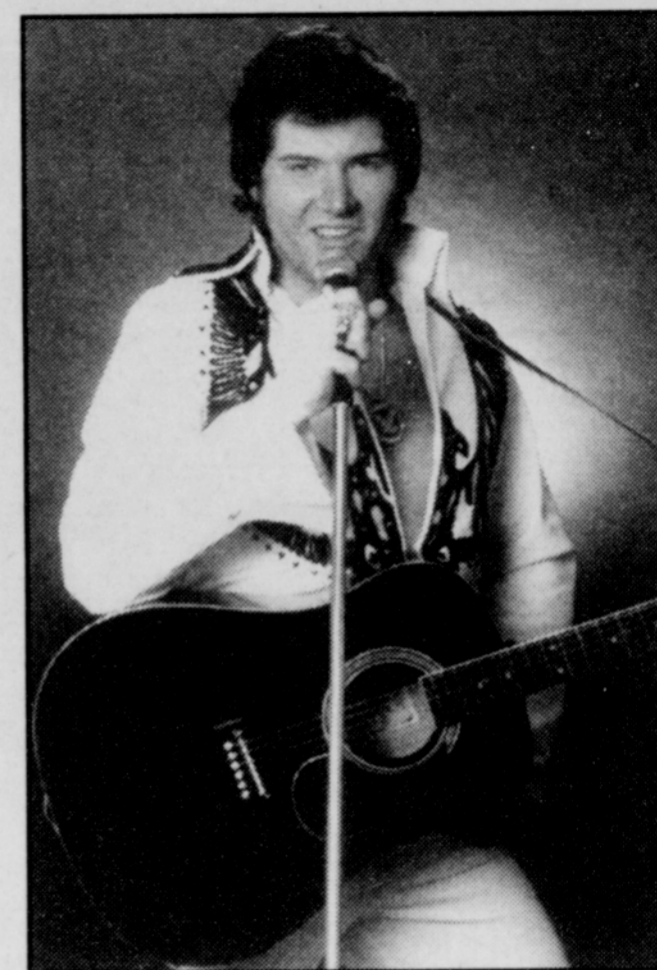

After a decade of backing up greats like David Allan Coe and Johnny Paycheck, CRR had its first big hits in 1992 with Jesus and Mama and Queen of Memphis. Since then, hits like When You Leave That Way You Can Never Go Back, Daddy Never Was The Cadillac Kind, and Trashy Women have continued to make the group's live shows exactly what their scores of fans want, an exciting and entertaining concert.

David Ball is a gift to those country music fans who crave a more traditional country sound. The gifted singer/songwriter and son of a Baptist preacher left his South Carolina home at age 17 with a group of musician friends called Uncle Walt's Band.

Once out on his own, his hits Thinking Problem, When The Thought of You Catches Up With Me, and Look What Followed Me Home earned him a Grammy nomination for Best Country Male Vocalist. His latest release, Amigo, has fans and music critics thrilled that he and his traditional style of country music are back.

Shows are at 8 p.m. both nights. Tickets range from $20 to $40.

Michael

One Man Becomes Three Rock 'n' Roll Legends

The Great Pretender Show starring Michael & Blue Suede will fool everyone's ears and eyes at Chinook Winds Casino on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1. Show times are 8 p.m. on Oct. 31 and 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Nov. 1.

Halloween is a time for resembling someone else, perhaps someone who has reached musical super-stardom. In The Great Pretender Show starring Michael and Blue Suede, Michael doesn't just look the part, he sings it too. And he doesn't pay tribute to just one timeless musical treasure, he honors three - Roy Orbison, Wayne Newton, and The King, Elvis Presley.

In Michael's previous performance at Chinook Winds, attendees were awestruck by his ability to reach even the most difficult notes of Roy Orbison and perform Elvis' American Trilogy to such perfection that even the most avid Elvis fan would have difficulty discerning that this rendition was not Elvis himself.

Supported by a live band and background singers, The Great Pretender Show is sure to get the ghosts and goblins rockin' and rollin' at Chinook Winds Casino. Tickets range from $10 to $20.
