Salute to Veterans with Free Shows

Stars and Stripes Forever, two free concerts honoring veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces, will be held at Chinook Winds Casino on Veterans' Day, Nov. 11. Get ready for a stirring tribute to those who have dedicated themselves to defend our country and the freedom we cherish, and fought so that others could be free from tyranny.

Cake will be available in the lobby prior to the shows. Showroom doors open at 3:30 p.m. for the 4 p.m. concert and 6:30 p.m. for the 7 p.m. concert. The Siletz Tribal Honor Guard will open the show with the presentation of the colors, followed by entertainment provided by the The Keller Coker Orchestra, with vocalists Mike Bartle, Bill Montague, and Jakki Ford.

The shows include a tribute to the Andrews Sisters and actor Tom Hallick will give a reading that he originally performed with Charleton Heston as part of President Ronald Reagan's inauguration.

Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers have contributed a video featuring the patriotic song Stand Up And Thank Them Now, which Larry Gatlin says is a tribute for his veteran father and to all people who have served in the armed forces. Paul Revere and The Raiders also have given a video presentation to be played. The Kells Bagpipers, a 12-piece pipe and drum corps, will close the concerts.

The shows are open to all ages. No tickets are required, it's first-come, first-seated.

Get a Babysitter and Call Your Girlfriends – The Men of Paradise Return

The male Polynesian dancers of Runi Tafeaga's "Men of Paradise" are set to perform at Chinook Winds Casino on Nov. 7. The "Men of Paradise" are from Tahiti, Samoa, and Hawaii. Several of them were featured on Baywatch Hawaii.

The "Men of Paradise" will perform in the convention center for two shows on one night only. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. for the 7 p.m. show and at 9:30 p.m. for the 10 p.m. show.

Tickets are $10. A no-host bar will be available and the shows are limited to individuals age 21 and over.
