

It's Happening at Chinook Winds in June

Hodges Named First 2004 Superstar

Sarah Hodges from the Food & Beverage Department was named the Superstar of the first quarter of 2004.

She received a check for $1,000, a plaque, and a marble tile with her name engraved on it that will be displayed at the front of the casino.

Sarah was nominated for going above and beyond the call of duty.

Two women guests had missed their bus back to Eugene and Sarah went out of her way to ensure that these guests found a way home. She even offered to take them to Eugene. Then, she contacted a roommate to get Greyhound bus schedules so the guests could get home safe and sound.

Both casino staff and casino guests can submit Superstar nominations. With more than 700 employees and only four of these awards given each year, it's a real honor to be chosen as the Superstar.

Congratulations, Sarah!

32 Comedians Enter Pacific Northwest Comedy Competition

On June 10-13, the laughter heard at Chinook Winds Casino and Convention Center just may be louder than the waves crashing on Lincoln City's beaches.

During those days, 32 invited up-and-coming comedians will do their best to woo the judges with their best stand-up material. Besides being known as the first winner of the Pacific Northwest Comedy Competition, they'll also compete for $7,777 in cash prizes.

To start the competition off on a funny foot, stand-up comedy veterans and Chinook Winds audience favorites Kenny Bob Davis (Mad TV, Gremlins) and Michael Pace (Curb Your Enthusiasm) will perform June 10 at 8 p.m.

On June 11-12, rounds one and two of the competition will take place with two shows, one at 4 p.m. and the second at 8 p.m. The final round on June 13 at 2 p.m. will include the six top-scoring comedians bringing out their best punch lines and anecdotes for 15 minutes each.

The winners will be chosen from this last grouping and the cash prizes awarded. After three days of intense (and hilarious) competition, one comedian will stand on the stage, proud and victorious, as the first Pacific Northwest Comedy Competition champion.

Competition Schedule

Round 1 June 11 at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.
Round 2 June 12 at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.
Finals June 13 at 2 p.m.

Tickets for the opening night show or for each individual round are $12. A full event pass good for all six shows is available for $50.

This event is for ages 21 and over. Doors will open 30 minutes before each show. A no-host bar will be available.
