Elders Hold Summer Barbeque

by Kathryn Dick

On June 27, the elders had a barbeque at the Siletz Tribal Community Center. It was a fun day with relay games in the sun and good food.

The relay game prizes were provided by the Elder Council funds. The elders feasted on steak, boneless pork ribs, shrimp kabobs, and crab salads, with all the trimmings to go along with great barbequed foods.

Dessert consisted of mixed fresh berries and bananas on angel food cake and root beer floats.

We ended the activities by playing bingo. Chinook Winds donated prizes for the bingo games. Fifty elders attended, along with 10 volunteers and three staff people. Everyone working together made this a very fun and successful event.

Sister Francella's team of Kay Steele, Dennis Lane, and Kathryn Dick shows off its balloon-stuffing technique at the elders' barbeque.

Elders Enjoy Craft Class

by Kathryn Dick

The Siletz Elders met at the Tribal Community Center on June 8 to learn to make beaded brooches. Liz John taught the class for the 10 elders who took part. We had another class July 15 to finish the brooches.

Classes also were held at the Salem and Portland area offices on July 20.

Delores Pigsley, Rosalie Bremner, Delores Ben, and Gladys Bolton attend the dedication of the World War II memorial in Washington, D.C., in May.
