

Laugh through Labor Day Weekend at Comedy on the Coast

Summer on the Oregon coast. The sun is shining, the waves are crashing, and the Comedy on the Coast audience is laughing.

That's because all three comedians scheduled for the next Comedy on the Coast have been entertaining fans across the nation and in film and television. This Labor Day weekend, Kenny Bob Davis, Ron Kenney, and Tim Haldeman will entertain audiences on Sept. 3-5.

Kenny Bob Davis is well acquainted with Oregon audiences. Recently, he opened for Larry Gatlin at the Lincoln County Fair and produced the first Pacific Northwest Comedy Competition.

Davis started his career in show business as a guitar playing folk-singer in the '60s. In 1978, thanks to Eddie Rabbitt, he started a new phase of his career by becoming an opening-act comedian. Since then, he has opened for Kenny Rogers, Alabama, and Larry Gatlin. Davis' television and movie credits include Mad TV, Gremlins, and Murder She Wrote.

Although Ron Kenney has been performing almost exclusively in Nevada the past few years, he has been a stand-up comedian for more than 20 years. In that time, he's made folks laugh everywhere from colleges to cruise ships, and at just about every comedy club in the country.

Kenney's television appearances include Evening at the Improv, VH1, and MTV. Most recently, his first novel, The Comics Open, has earned raves from fellow comedians Louie Anderson and Buddy Hackett.

Whether you know it or not, you have probably seen Tim Haldeman. The actor/stand-up comic has performed in more than 100 television shows and movies. Among his many credits are appearances on The West Wing, Malcolm in the Middle, ER, The Drew Carey Show, Sabrina The Teenage Witch and 3rd Rock From The Sun.

Over the last decade, Haldeman has developed a stand-up routine that he has performed across the country, including at The Sahara in Las Vegas and at the Atlantis Hotel in Atlantic City.

Comedy on the Coast begins at 8 p.m. for this age 21 and over event. Doors will open one half hour before each show. A no-host bar will be available. Show tickets, priced at $12, are available at the box office.
