AARP Senior Fair Returns

From a fashion show to two vacation giveaways, the 2004 AARP Senior Fair at Chinook Winds Casino Resort promises excitement and information.

The Senior Fair is free to the public and will be held in the convention center on Oct. 5 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Oct. 6 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

New this year to the AARP Senior Fair will be a booth especially designated for items donated to men and women serving in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Dorothy Bishop will head up the booth and mailing of items to those serving in the Middle East.

Specific items needed by the soldiers include single packages of hot chocolate, coffee, and cider; international phone cards; black and white socks; AA and AAA batteries; baby wipes; and trial size lotions, toothbrushes, and toothpaste.

Items collected will be included in Christmas boxes. Chinook Winds Casino Resort has donated 12 cases of playing cards.

During the two-day event, Chinook Winds will give away two vacations, including a trip for two to Hawaii and a cruise for two.

Both days will feature a fashion show from Tanger Outlet Center and flu immunizations will be administered by the Lincoln County Health Department.

Vendors and sponsors interested in participating in the 2004 AARP Senior Fair should call 541-996-7474 or 1-800-984-4968.

Flu shots again will be available at the Senior Fair.

Tickets go on sale 90 days in advance.

Concerts in the showroom are for ages 16 and older; Comedy on the Coast and Coastal Rhythm & Blues are for ages 21 and older. The Veterans Show, Peking Acrobats, and Scrooge The Musical are open to all ages.
