Bolton Brings Award-Winning Sound to Chinook Winds

Michael Bolton will perform at Chinook Winds Casino Resort on Oct. 8-9, 2004.

Over the course of his extraordinary career, this singer/songwriter has sold more than 52 million albums and singles worldwide, and has won two Grammys for best male vocalist and six American Music Awards.

A prolific songwriter, Bolton has penned songs for legendary artists, including Barbra Streisand, KISS, Kenny Rogers, Kenny G., Cher, and Patti Labelle. He has performed with Luciano Pavarotti, Placido Domingo, Renee Fleming, Patti Labelle, Ray Charles, Percy Sledge, Wynonna Judd, and BB King.

For his newest album, Vintage, Bolton turns to the pop standards of the 1940s, '50s and '60s. With such legendary songs as All The Way, A Kiss To Build A Dream On, The Very Thought Of You, When I Fall In Love, and Smile, Bolton brings to life the essence of pop music and opens the genius of such renowned songwriters to today's audiences.

Show time is 8 p.m. each night. Tickets range from $45 to $60.

Coastal Rhythm & Blues Features Paul deLay, Mel Brown, and Norman Sylvester

Three respected and talented blues bands will create a juke joint atmosphere at the Coastal Rhythm & Blues show Oct. 9 at Chinook Winds.

The performers include Paul deLay featuring Linda Hornbuckle, Mel Brown featuring Ellen Whyte, and The Norman Sylvester Band featuring LaRhonda Steele.

Paul deLay is considered one of the finest blues harmonica players and singer-songwriters to be found and his band mates are well known in blues circles across the nation. Recently, West Coast Blues Review wrote that deLay's band is "easily the best of all the West Coast backup units."

Northwest vocal legend Linda Hornbuckle will lend her astounding vocal talents to the evening's show in her second appearance at Chinook Winds.

Mel Brown is noted for his work with The Supremes, The Temptations, Diana Ross, Martha and the Vandellas, and numerous jazz musicians, and has firmly established himself as one of America's foremost drummers. He's even played with The Beatles – he's the drummer on their release of My Sweet Lord. Brown also loves straight ahead mainstream jazz and has toured with Teddy Edwards and Bill Watrous.

Ellen Whyte, the "neon blonde of blues," will join Brown and his band.

The Norman Sylvester Band started performing in the Portland area in 1985. The band has shared the stage with BB King, Buddy Guy, James Cotton, Junior Wells, and Otis Clay. Helping the band bring the boogie to the stage will be featured vocalist LaRhonda Steele.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. with the first band at 7 p.m. A food court and no-host bar, as well as non-alcoholic beverages, will be available. Tickets are $15 for this event, which is open to guests age 21 and over.

Laugh Away the Ghouls and Goblins at Comedy on the Coast

On Halloween weekend, trick-or-treaters age 21 and older can enjoy three devilishly funny comedians at Comedy on the Coast at Chinook Winds Casino Resort.

Comedians scheduled for Oct. 29-30 are Barry Diamond, Bobby Kosser, and Stanley Ullman.

For those who watch Curb Your Enthusiasm, Friends, or Seinfeld, Barry Diamond will be a familiar face. Fans of the film Bachelor Party will remember Diamond as "Rudy" and in particular his infamous movie line, "Let's have a bachelor party – with chicks and guns and fire trucks ..."

On top of having appeared in well-known television and film comedies, Diamond has been doing stand-up comedy at the best comedy clubs in the nation for more than 15 years, including multiple USO comedy tours.

From The Tonight Show to Late Night with David Letterman, Bobby Kosser is well-known for his offbeat (but not off-color) humor. His style has been described as "a cross between Woody Allen and Jerry Seinfeld."

Kosser has opened for such celebrities as Tina Turner, Ray Charles, The Pointer Sisters, and Dolly Parton.

Stanley Ullman has headlined at comedy clubs across the country. In fact, he holds the record for the most performances on A&E's Evening at the Improv with six.

Many audience members may recognize Ullman. With 25 national television commercials on his résumé, it's no wonder. He's also been seen on Night Court and Golden Girls.

Comedy on the Coast begins at 8 p.m.; doors open at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $12 and are available at the box office. This is an age 21 and older show.
