Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians

Vol. 32, No. 12 December 2004

David Butler enjoys himself at the Restoration Pow-Wow on Nov. 20 at Chinook Winds Casino Resort. Earlier in the day, the crowd heard from former Gov. Vic Atiyeh; Stan Speaks, BIA regional director; and Robert Kentta, tribal cultural resources director, and was entertained by children in the Siletz Tribal Head Start program. Please see more photos on page 13.

The Siletz Tribal Business Corporation Board joins Ambassadors from the Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce to cut the ribbon at the dedication of the Logan Road RV Park on Nov. 3 in Lincoln City, Ore. The 51-space RV park will open to the public this month with cable TV, wireless Internet, 50-amp service, laundry facilities, sewer hookups, and restrooms. It's located at 4800 NE Logan Road, just north of Chinook Winds Casino Resort. Contact camp host Doug Johnson at 1-877-LOGANRV (564-2678) or 541-994-4261, or visit www.loganroadrvpark.com for more details about the facility.
