Attend the Fantasy of Trees and Song of the Angels Holiday Ball

Each year, Angels Anonymous, a local non-profit charitable foundation, holds "The Fantasy of Trees" and "The Song of the Angels" Holiday Ball, its major fund-raiser, at Chinook Winds Casino Resort.

This year's sixth annual event, on Dec. 2-4, will feature approximately 30 trees decorated and sponsored by local businesses and individuals who not only spend hours decorating them, but several hundred dollars in decorations as well.

Over the past years, the themes of the individual trees have included Betty Boop, firemen, Harry Potter, chocolates, peacocks, roses, ballerinas, fishing, old-fashioned Christmas, hand-carved ornaments, and many trees splendidly trimmed in specific colors. Each year sees a wide variety of themes, sizes, and the prices that they bring.

Decorating of the Christmas trees will begin Dec. 1 at noon. Sponsors have until noon on Dec. 2 to finish their trees and have them ready for viewing.

Viewing and bidding will take place on Dec. 2 from noon to 6 p.m.; Dec. 3 from noon until 9 p.m.; and Dec. 4 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The tree viewing is free, so bring the whole family to see these exceptional trees. Final bidding will occur at the Holiday Ball on Dec. 4.

Featured entertainment for the Holiday Ball includes nationally known comedian Susan Rice, followed by local favorite Michael Dane and Company providing music to dance by. The Holiday Ball runs from 6 p.m. until midnight.

In addition to the trees to be auctioned off, numerous drawings, special auction items, and gift boxes filled with secret surprises from local merchants will be available for sale.

Holiday Ball tickets, which include a plated dinner, the show, and auction are on sale at the Lincoln City Chamber of Commerce, 541-994-3070. Tickets are $60; a table of eight can be purchased for the discounted price of $420.

People wishing to make anonymous contributions to Angels Anonymous can send them to P.O. Box 554, Lincoln City, OR 97367.
