

HGTV's Harry Rinker Appraises Treasures During Antique Week

Harry Rinker, also known as HGTV's Collector Inspector, is returning for Lincoln City's Antique Week. Along with other local appearances, Rinker will lecture and hold verbal appraisal clinics at the Oregon Coast Antique and Collectible Show on Feb. 11-13 in the Chinook Winds Casino Resort hotel meeting rooms.

There is no admission fee and all ages are welcome to shop the dozens of vendors.

One of Antique Week's highlights is Rinker's Appraise-athon.

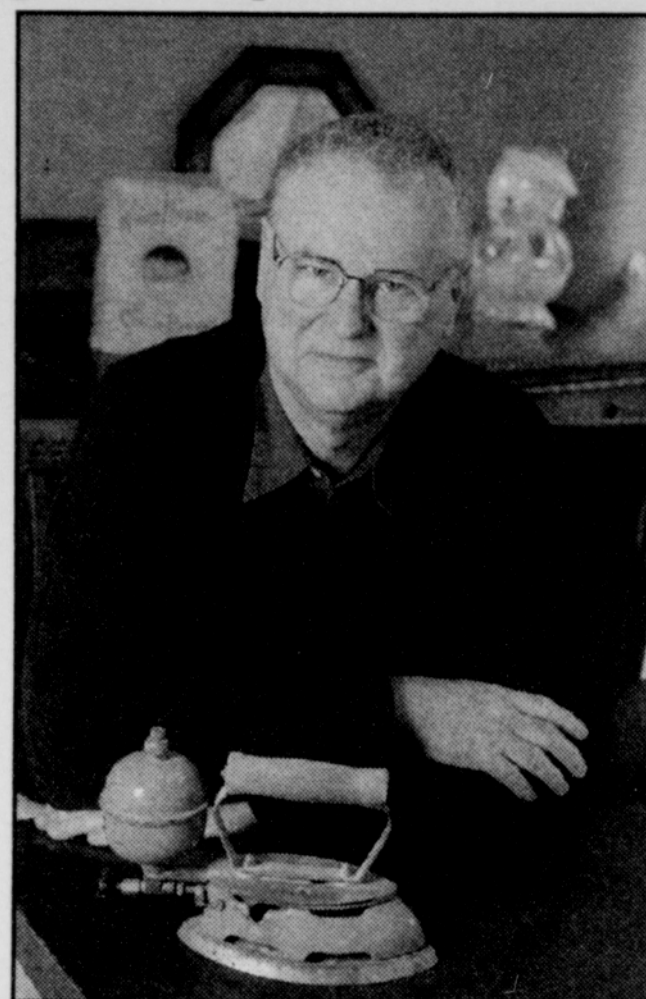

For a fee, Rinker will professionally appraise up to three items. The cost to have one item appraised is $10 and for $25, you can get three items appraised. To reserve a spot, please call Linda Wagner at 541-996-2323 or 1-800-996-5825, ext. 2323.

Rinker will present two workshops aimed at those who collect or are considering the hobby. He hosts Collector Inspector, a weekly show devoted to seeking out antiques and collectibles in private homes, on the Home & Garden Television (HGTV) network.

In 1991, Rinker founded the Institute for the Study of Antiques & Collectibles. Its seminars, conferences, and other educational programs are designed to increase the skills and expertise of auctioneers, collectors, dealers, and others within the field.

The show is just part of Lincoln City's Antique Week which runs from Feb. 11-21. Area antique stores are planning sales and special events, including a Native American art workshop at the Little Antique Mall.

Enjoy Laughs with Sinbad

Sinbad, the uproarious comedian, will tell his real-life stories and poke fun at others at Chinook Winds Casino Resort on Feb. 18-19.

After touring America on a self proclaimed "Poverty Tour" (traveling on a Greyhound bus, changing in restaurant restrooms, and working for meals), a stint on Star Search helped raise Sinbad's profile.

Although he never won, he was a finalist and appeared on the show seven times. This led to his first professional break on The New Red Foxx Show playing Foxx's son. Bill Cosby also noticed Sinbad's talents and cast him on television's A Different World, where he spent four years.

Sinbad has hosted numerous TV specials, including It's Showtime at the Apollo, Sinbad: Brain Damaged, and several other HBO specials.

His first movie role was Necessary Roughness. Parts in Coneheads and

Sinbad

Meteor Man followed before his first starring role in Houseguest. His other films include First Kid, Jingle All The Way, Homeward Bound II, and The Cherokee Kid.

Tickets for Sinbad range from $20 to $40. Show time each night is 8 p.m.
