Siletz Tribal Head Start is an equal opportunity program and open to all children regardless of race, age, sex, handicap, or national origin. Any person who believes he/she has been discriminated against should write to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

All children get to steer the Sternwheeler, including Captain Troy

Ilario, Eva, Kray, and Josue enjoy the Sternwheeler ride.

Highlights from Siletz Tribal Head Start

Salem Head Start students Troy, Oscar, Juan, and Randall Jr. go on a field trip to the Sternwheeler.

Parents Eric, Bryce, and Rual help get the Salem center ready for new siding.
