Graduates!

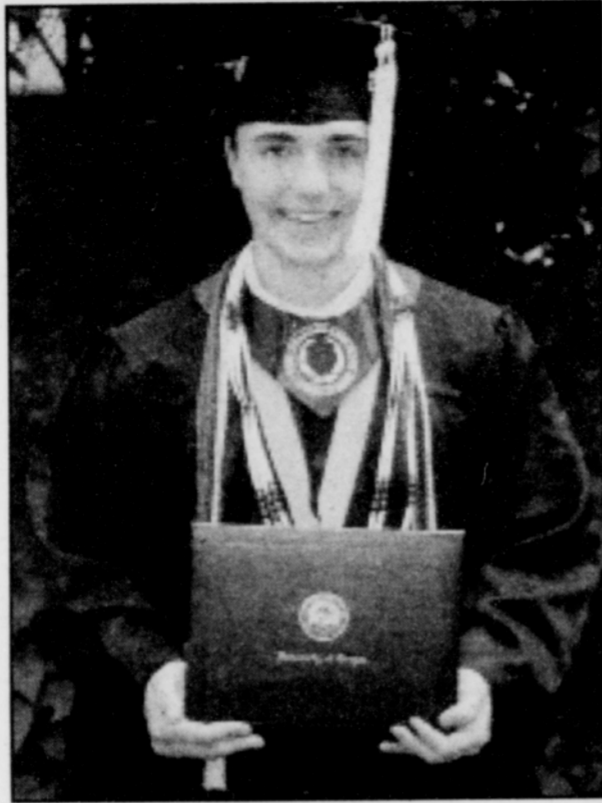

Nicholas Chadwick Viles

Nicholas Chadwick Viles has graduated summa cum laude (top 2 percent of university graduating class) from the University of Oregon.

His senior thesis, "Abolishing the Indian: John Beeson, Abolitionist Manhood, and American Indian Reform," was selected as the best thesis by the faculty of the Robert D. Clark Honors College, earning Nicholas the 2005 President's Award.

Nicholas also was awarded the John A. Schwab Memorial Endowed Scholarship by the faculty of the History Department in recognition of excellence in scholarship.

Awarded both a B.A. in history (with honors) and a B.A. in Spanish (with honors), Nicholas also has been initiated into the Phi Beta Kappa National Honor Society after being selected upon the recommendation of the university faculty as one of the top six University of Oregon graduating seniors. Colby Ransier from your family, with love

Congratulations to Colby Ransier! He graduated from Canby High School on June 10, 2005.

The graduation ceremony was held outside at the high school. His parents, Kenya and Mark Ransier; brothers, Stefan and Skyler; grandparents, Connie and Ron James, and Larry and Bonnie Ransier; and great-grandmother, Geneva Johnson, want to congratulate Colby on this special achievement and say how very proud we are of him.

We love you, Colby, and we will be praying for you as you begin a new journey in your life. If you allow God to walk before you, you will always be headed in the right direction. You cannot get lost.

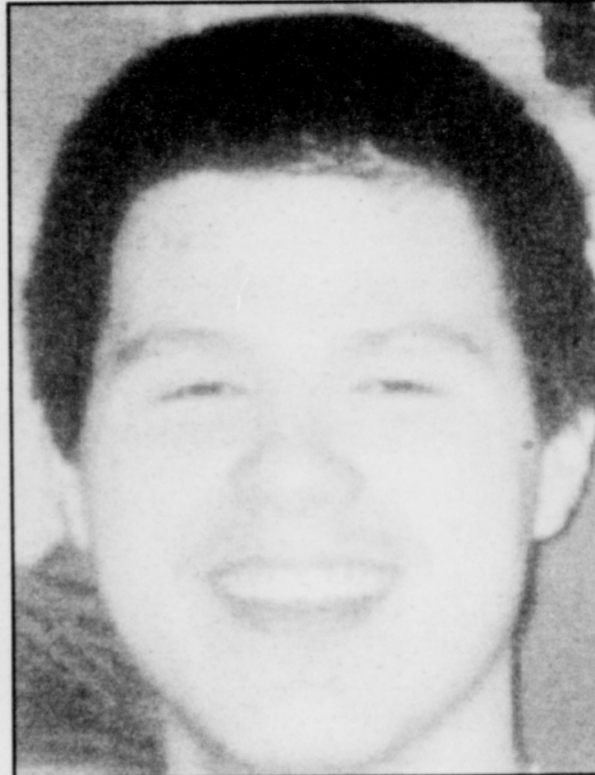

Chrisman Offers Jazzercise Lite

Classes are scheduled every Tuesday and Thursday at Dance & All That Jazz, 630 NW Hurbert St. in Newport. Jazzercise Lite is a one-hour class that combines lite dance aerobics, muscle toning, stretching, and balance with elements of pilates, yoga, and kickboxing.

Tribal member Shannon Chrisman, who has been in the business for three years, now is offering a 10 percent discount on monthly passes to Siletz Tribal members and employees of Chinook Winds Casino Resort and the Siletz Tribe.
