Veterans Honored with Free Concert

On Nov. 11, a free concert in tribute to America's veterans will be held at 7 p.m. in the Chinook Winds Casino Resort showroom. This show is open to all ages and requires no ticket. Seats are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Chinook Winds wants to say "thank you" to America's veterans, their families, and their loved ones with a complimentary concert. Local radio personality Roger Robertson will serve as emcee and Miss Native American Oregon will speak.

Musical entertainers will include a seven-piece band and American Indian dancers, featuring the Marty Pinnecoose Dance Troupe performing tributes to every man and woman who has served in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Congresswoman Darlene Hooley or a representative from her office will be on hand to speak as well. Please join us on Veterans Day as we honor our veterans.
