

CHINOOK WINDS CASINO RESORT

Come to the Super Bowl Party

Chinook Winds Casino Resort will host its annual Super Bowl viewing party inside our convention center Feb. 5, 2006.

The game will be broadcast live from Ford Field, in Detroit, Mich., and is the 40th Super Bowl game. Super Bowl XL will be the second one played in the Motor City. The first was Super Bowl XVI, when Joe Montana helped claim the first Lombardi Trophy for the San Francisco 49ers.

Where: Convention Center on multiple giant screens. Everyone must be age 21 or older. Tickets: $10 for the general public (employees not eligible to win any drawing or Game Day Million cards).

When: Doors will open at 2 p.m. Game time is 3 p.m.

Food & Beverage: "Stadium-style" food will be available, as well as beverage specials throughout the game.

Prizes Drawings: A two-part ticket will be given to each guest with initial entry and with every beverage purchased. It will be used for drawings that include $1,000 at the end of first quarter, $1,000 at halftime, and $1,000 at the end of third quarter, plus Super Bowl memorabilia throughout the game. The first 200 people in the door will receive a Super Bowl cap.

Super Bowl Game Day Cards: One Game Day "Scratch It" Card will be given to each person as they enter the party. These cards replace the classic squares board.

On each card will be four "two-number combinations," one number combination for each quarter. To win a prize, a game piece must have the correct last digit of the score for both teams at the end of each quarter. Here are the prizes in order:

- Win any one quarter: $50
- Win any two quarters: $100
- Win any three quarters: $1,000
- Win all four quarters: $100,000

Foreigner

Foreigner in Concert

Tickets are on sale now to see the hit band Foreigner at Chinook Winds Casino Resort on Feb. 24-25.

This legendary rock band will perform top-10 songs like Urgent, Double Vision, I Want To Know What Love Is, and many more. You won't be able to stay in your seat as band members bring back old memories and start some new ones with their ever-popular songs.

Formed in 1976, the band was made up of experienced British musicians Mick Jones and Ian McDonald, and four relative newcomers to the arena of major rock – British musician Dennis Elliott and Americans Ed Gagliardi, Lou Gramm, and Alan Greenwood.

Less than a year after getting together, the six released their first album, Foreigner (March 7, 1977), and within months had two top-10 hit singles.

The band soon went back to the studio to write and record its second album, Double Vision (June 20, 1978). Once again, they experienced surprising success and two more top-10 singles. All this while their first album was still on the national charts!

A year later, their third album, Head Games (Sept. 11, 1979), hit the charts and produced two more hit singles. Surrounded by controversy at the time and considered a failure for the band, Head Games went on to sell 5 million copies in the U.S. alone.

In 2002, the 25th anniversary brought affirmation of the enduring respect for Foreigner recordings with Rhino Entertainment re-issuing the 1977-1981 multi-platinum albums in special enhanced formats. Foreigner, Double Vision, Head Games, and 4 received the loving attention of Rhino's staff and bloomed again with new photos and liner notes, and bonus tracks of previously unreleased material.

New Greatest Hits albums also were produced in the U.S. and in Europe. And in 2001, the Warner Music Group selected Foreigner and 4 to be among the first group of albums from its catalog to be remastered and released in the new DVD audio format.

Ticket prices for the Foreigner concert range from $20 to $35. Show time is 8 p.m. each night.

Comedy Powerhouses Come to Coast

Fielding West

Jack Mayberry

You won't want to miss the comedic talents of Fielding West and Jack Mayberry at Chinook Winds Casino Resort on Jan. 27-28. They will keep you doubled over in laughter all night long with their different styles of comedic talent.

West has been seen everywhere from stage to television. Much of the enjoyment of his shows comes from his humorous and good-natured audience involvement. He is a seasoned pro who adapts his act to any audience. You may have seen him on such hit TV shows as Comedy Central, Animal Planet, and Entertainment Tonight.

Mayberry began his comedic career at a local radio station as an on-air personality. Finding his love for comedy, he continued pursuing opportunities to perform and eventually started doing stand-up comedy at The Comedy Workshop in Houston, Texas, in 1984.

Since then, Mayberry has appeared on numerous television programs, such as A&E's Evening at the Improv, and has made more than 25 appearances on The Tonight Show. And in addition to his dead-on caricature of Ross Perot, crowds also are treated to his clean stand-up comedy.

The show begins at 8 p.m. each night; the doors open at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $12.
