NSAIE Needs AmeriCorps Volunteers to Help Elders Nationwide

The National Society for American Indian Elderly (NSAIE) works to increase senior services on tribal lands, allowing American Indian elders to stay in their homes as respected members of their communities and keepers of their traditions.

We currently are recruiting college graduates to serve as AmeriCorps VISTA members through NSAIE. Positions are available with tribes and tribal organizations across the country.

Volunteers serve in predominantly rural areas where the conditions for American Indian elders are challenging, but where the project can have the most impact.

These volunteers work to supplement and increase services for American Indian elders. The work is based on the current identified needs for services that include increased funding for nutrition services, services to increase socialization opportunities, transportation, and in-home services.

We're looking for applicants with professional writing skills, cultural sensitivity, and sincere interest in public service.

For more information, call 602.424.0542, e-mail info@nsaie.org, or visit www.nsaie.org.

NAYA Family Center Hosts Housing Fair

The Native American Youth and Family Center (NAYA Family Center) announces Portland's first Native American Housing to Homeownership Fair. The event will be held July 29 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Mount Tabor Hall at the Portland Community College Southeast Center, 2305 SE 82nd Ave. (at Division Street).

The fair is offered in response to community need and as part of NAYA Family Center's goal of increasing economic and housing stability in the American Indian/Alaska Native Community.

The fair will provide a wide range of resources for the whole community, from renters to potential homeowners. In comparison to populations of similar size, only 17 percent of Portland's 38,000 American Indians and Alaska

Natives own their home (Northwest Area Foundation).

The Native American Housing to Homeownership Fair is free and open to everyone. Participants will meet housing resource professionals and lenders, and may be eligible to enter to win $1,500 in down payment assistance.

Classes, homebuyer assistance information, and housing resources for renters with home ownership goals will be offered. Features include American Indian dance performances, a guest drum, food, a Kids' Corner, and raffle prizes.

For more information, contact Sara Libby at the NAYA Center, 503-288-8177, ext. 232, or Yvonne Litke, housing finance specialist with the Siletz Tribe, 503-390-9494.
