Brianna Soulier is 8 years old (daughter of Cynthia DePoe-Soulier) and entered two events at the Puyallup Fair this year. She entered her clay mask in the Ceramics/Pottery division and won "Grand Champion," "Best in Category" and "1st Place." She also entered a Lego contest and won a ribbon for "Craftsmanship."

New Spokespersons Sworn In

Tribal Court swore in two spokespersons on Oct. 4, 2006, at the Lincoln County Courthouse in Newport, Ore.

Kelley Ellis, a tribal member, took and passed the tribal bar exam and was sworn into office by Chief Judge Calvin Gantenbein (right photo).

Also, Amber Frye, a Legal Aid Services of Oregon (LASO) attorney, took and passed the tribal bar exam and was sworn into office during LASO's open house at the Lincoln County Courthouse by Chief Judge Gantenbein (left photo).

With the addition of Ellis and Frye, there are now 20 members of the Siletz Tribal Bar.
