Charlie Daniels Band Hits the Stage at Chinook Winds

Legendary country artist Charlie Daniels will perform his country western style of music live on stage Dec. 8-9 at Chinook Winds Casino Resort.

Performing hit songs like The Devil Went Down To Georgia and The South's Gonna Do It, Daniels will bring the South to life.

"Charlie's love of music is only surpassed by his love of people, especially the American people," said former President Gerald Ford.

Daniels is part Western and part

Southern. His signature "bull rider" hat and belt buckle, love of horses, cowboy lore, and love of Louis L'Amour novels identify him as a Westerner.

The son of a lumberjack and a Southerner by birth, his musical is quintessentially Southern.

It hasn't been so much a style of music, but more the values consistently reflected in several styles that has connected Daniels with millions of fans.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tickets range from $15 to $40.
