Delbert Wayne Bell 1939 – 2006

Delbert Wayne Bell was born to Angeline Rippen Bell and Arthur Lincoln Bell on Aug. 25, 1939, in Chemewa, Ore. He was the 11th of 12 children born to the couple. A younger brother died in infancy, making Delbert the youngest child in the family.

He was a proud member of the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians and was raised in Logsdon-Siletz, where he attended grade school and high school.

Delbert served in the U.S. Army from 1957 to 1960 and was stationed in Fort Riley, Kan., and in Germany. He worked in the timber industry in both the Siletz area and later in Springfield, Ore., after moving there in the late '60s.

In the late '70s, he began working in various jobs for the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians and continued in that work until going to work for the State of Oregon Adult and Family Services in 1987, where he worked until his retirement in July 2002.

Delbert played football while in high school and was proud to play softball for quite a few years on championship all-Indian teams around the area. He continued to be an avid sports fan for his entire life and Delbert especially rooted for the Oregon Ducks.

Delbert married Karen Nyman in 1980 in Reno, Nev., and they later divorced. He married Sharen Hulegaard in June of 1990 in Reno.

Delbert died of liver and kidney failure on Nov. 22, 2006, at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene, Ore., with his wife, children, nieces, and nephews surrounding his bed.

Delbert is survived by his wife; a daughter, Sara Bell, and her husband,

Delbert Wayne Bell

David Tellez, of Siletz; a son, Lincoln Flores, of Eugene; a sister, Clarice "Babe" McKnight, of Springfield; a brother-in-law, Chuck Ricks, of Logsdon; three stepsons, Brett Cobb and his wife Kelly of Salem, Jason Cobb and his wife Shauna of Warrenton, and Damon Skogseth of Springfield; six grandchildren; 13 nieces and nephews; 14 great-nieces and -nephews; and eight great-great-nieces and -nephews. He was loved and respected by his family and friends, and will be missed very much.

A visitation was held at Musgrove Family Mortuary in Eugene on Nov. 30 from 3-7 p.m. and a wake was held on Dec. 1 at the Siletz Tribal Community Center from 6 p.m. to 12 a.m.

His funeral was on Dec. 2 at the Siletz Tribal Community Center, followed by a graveside service. He was buried beside family members at the Paul Washington Cemetery on Government Hill in Siletz.

Butler Places Second in Grappling Championships

by Loraine Y. Butler

The family of Rusty Butler would like to congratulate him on his second-place win at the Dynamic Full Contact Submission Grappling Championship held at Seven Feathers Resort in Canyonville, Ore., on Nov. 18, 2006. Rusty won three of his four matches.

He also competed in the Western Brazilian Jujitsu Submission Grappling Championship in Hillsboro, Ore., on Oct. 14, 2006. He finished with one win and one loss. Rusty has been working hard for the last year, training to do what he loves.

We are looking forward to supporting you, Rusty, as you grow in this art. We are proud that you have committed to follow your dream to someday go pro.
