

CULTURE CAMP 2007

Culture Camp activities included (from top right photo, clockwise) preparation of salmon for Thursday's dinner with Charlie Black (center) showing Leslie Brown (left) how to filet a big fish; Elders projects created by (front to back) Connie Hartt, Carol Blomstrom, Gylene Jones, and Kay Stainbrook; making moccasins with Sonja Moody giving instructions to an attentive camper; feather sticks made by proud campers (l to r) Savannah Stokes, Leslie Brown, Tiffany Stokes, and Lavonna Butler; and ceramic artwork created by Liz John. Other Culture Camp activities included recreational games and traditional crafts such as making drum sticks, bows, beaded chokers and other beaded items, and jingle and shell necklaces; face painting; Siletz basket weaving; bear grass braiding; flint knapping; language classes; and Native American oral health practices. (photos by Laurel V. Johnson)

