Adults, Youth Help Clean Up

During Siletz Cleanup Day on May 19, a combination of adults and youth cleaned up Tolowa Court. Kathleen Van Pelt Forster, Tolowa Court area representative, and her husband, Richard, were assisted by a work crew consisting of Leslie Brown (age 8), Jarron Brown (7), Kyle Hall (3), and his brother, Hunter Hall (2).

Equipped with garbage bags, rubber gloves and plenty of youthful energy, the volunteers hunted and captured loose papers, broken glass, aluminum cans and cigarette butts. Later, the Tolowa group met with others from the Siletz Housing Resident Organization for a barbecue lunch at the Tribal Community Center.

Each youth volunteer received a $10 Wal-mart gift card for their participation in Siletz Cleanup Day.
