CTSI is constantly looking for temporary employees to cover vacancy, vacations, maternity leave, and extend sick leave. If you are retired, a homemaker, or a student and are looking for temporary work that can last from two weeks to 12 weeks, please submit a temporary application for the temp pool.

Note: "Open Until Filled" vacancies may close at any time. The tribe's Indian Preference policy will apply. Tribal government will not discriminate in selection because of race, creed, age, sex, color, national origin, physical handicap, marital status, politics, membership or non-membership in an employee organization.

The 477-Self Sufficiency staff would like to thank all clients who were able to attend the Financial Fitness Class (left) on Sept. 25, 2007. Thank you, Yvonne (Siletz finance manager), for putting this class together.

Donating Computers

If you have a usable older computer that you would be willing to donate to another family, or if you are in need of a used computer, please call me at 541-444-8210 or 1-800-922-1399, ext. 1210. I will try to match you with someone who has one or needs one.

Please note that you are receiving these computers "as is" and I cannot repair or replace these donated computers and cannot guarantee their usability.

Gateway Technical Support

The Gateway Technical Support number is 1-800-846-2301. Please have the serial number for your computer on hand when you call so Gateway can determine whether your computer is still under warranty or not.

3rd Annual Northwest Indian Storytellers Festival, Symposium & Charity Auction, Nov 2-4, 2007 Fri & Sat 7pm-10pm, Sun 10am-2pm Portland State University

Esther Stutzman is Coos and Komemma Kalapuya and is an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Siletz.

You are invited to join us at our Third Annual NISA Storytellers Festival being held in PSU's Hoffman Hall on Friday and Saturday evenings. Hoffman Hall is located in downtown Portland at 1833 SW 11th Ave. Free parking is available in PSU's Parking Structure 3, located between 12th Ave and 13th Ave at SW Clay and SW Montgomery.

A public Symposium on Native American Storytelling will be held on Sunday, November 4th at PSU's Native American Student and Community Center (NASCC) building at the corner of SW Broadway and SW Jackson Streets. Free parking is available in PSU's Parking Lot 6, located one block north of NASCC.

Support our American Indian Charity Auction (live and silent) where you can bid on a number of native gift items and other offerings, to benefit the Northwest Indian Storytellers Association and Wisdom of the Elders, Inc.

Contributions from $10-20 ($5-10 for elders) accepted at the door. For event information and directions, please call 503-517-9759 or visit us at: www.wisdomoftheelders.org

Events are funded in part by National Endowment for the Arts, Northwest Indian Storytellers Association and Wisdom of the Elders, Inc. Special thanks to additional sponsors: Native American Rehabilitation Association of the Northwest, Inc., Komemma Cultural Protection Association and PSU's Students for Healthy Schools & Communities and Native American Student and Community Center
