

World's Top Professional Female Billiards Players Vie for Championship

Cuetec Cues Tour Championship Brings Renowned Players to Oregon

Allison Fisher, Karen Corr, Jennifer Barretta and more than 48 of the world's top female billiards players are scheduled to appear in Lincoln City, Ore., on Nov. 7-11 when the ladies of the Women's Professional Billiards Association (WPBA) compete in the Cuetec Cues Tour Championship at Chinook Winds.

The tension will be high and the playing will be tough. But for diehard fans, recent admirers and those who are just curious, this is an event that can't be missed. This opportunity provides those who watch the matches on ESPN with the chance to see these ladies of the felt live and in person.

Fisher beat out 2005 champion Ga-Young Kim to earn the 2006 tour title in women's billiards on Nov. 12, 2006. Kim missed her shot at a repeat when she narrowly missed the 8 ball and gave Fisher the opportunity for the win.

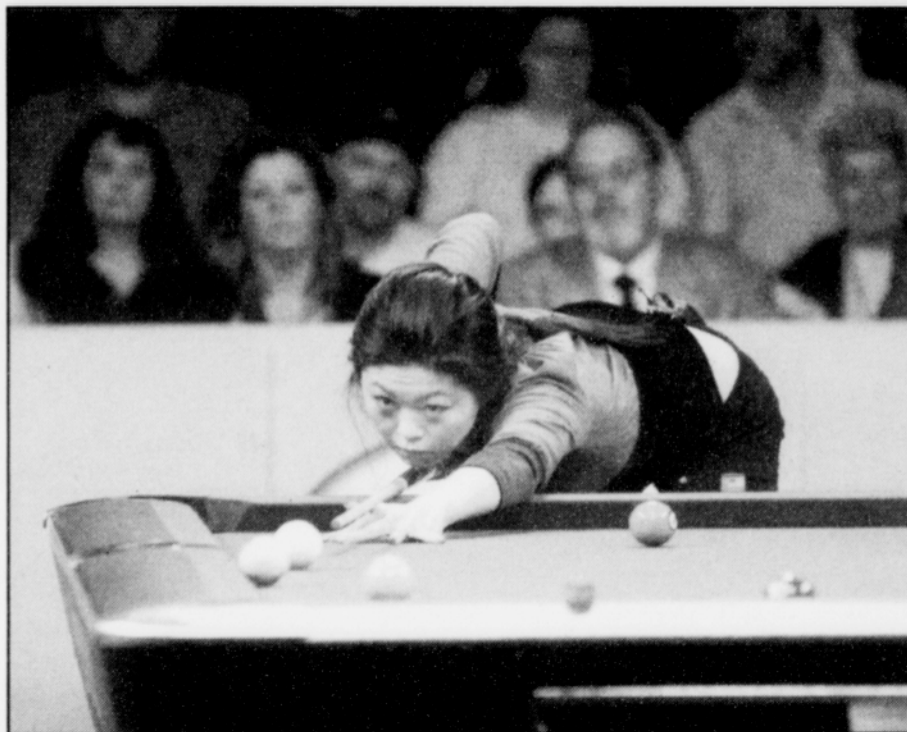

Fisher took her time and made both balls to become the 2006 Cuetec Cues Tour Champion. The emotional final was almost too much for both players as tears came from both of them.

"This is the most intense match I think I have ever played" remarked Fisher after her victory.

On Nov. 7 at 7 p.m., the Pro-Am Celebrity Shootout will benefit My Sisters' Place, a local shelter for women and children. At this pay-to-play event, members of the public can bid to play against or with one of the ladies of the WPBA. Or just buy a ticket for $15 to see media and local celebrities team up with the top 16 players in the nation.

All ticket and bid monies collected will be donated to My Sister's Place. Last year's shootout raised nearly $6,000.

Bingo Winners!

During our Surf City Special on Sept. 23, our guests had a chance to win $1,000 Indian Star games. We had one winner for each session – Beth McPhearson (left) for the Matinee session and Joan Stuhr (right) for the Evening session.

Our All-U-Can Daub paper-only session had a couple of big winners. Ruth Burr (left) and Anita Peckron (right) both won $1,199 on the blackouts.

I look into the eyes of those who meant the world to my friend, Wanda, and I know she is not far.

The love and pride Wanda had for each of them is eternal and through them, Wanda will forever be part of our lives.

Much love and respect, our friend Wanda. We will miss you always.

Prayers from my family to hers,
Flo

I want to wish Ricky Bayya a Happy Birthday on Nov. 11 and Michael Fisher a very Happy Birthday on Nov. 8.

Much respect – Nako, Robert, Kaetlin, Mateas, and Kane

Happy Birthday, Sephina Zera and Alonzo Cole – grandchildren.
Love, Grandma

Happy Birthday, Sis Char. You're still behind me by one year.
Love, Sis Yvonne

Happy Birthday, great-grandchildren Ke-Aloni Cole and Lorenzo Legorreta.
Love, Grandma G.

Where are you, Victor? Happy Birthday!
Mom Yvonne

RaeLoni and Melissa – Happy 18th, girls! It seems not long ago Grandma was trying to balance the two of you girls on her lap. Words are weak to explain how proud I am of you girls (Lena and Shyanne too). It's things like this that make the family shine. Continue to represent.

Love, youth Mother and Aunt Jo

Our All-U-Can Daub paper-only session had a couple of big winners. Ruth Burr (left) and Anita Peckron (right) both won $1,199 on the blackouts.
