Call to Tribal Contractors

Chemawa Station LLC is developing a list of landscape contractors to solicit proposals for landscaping services at its Chemawa Station Property in Keizer, Ore.

Licensed landscape contractors that are owned by or employ tribal members and wish to be included on this list are requested to call Eric Scott at 503-879-2404. Please indicate your business name, address, telephone, fax, name(s) of tribal members employed and roll number if available.

Marjorie May Molyneux Breon 1925–2008

Marjorie May Molyneux Breon died on Jan. 19, 2008, in Burns, Ore. Marjorie was born on Aug. 14, 1925, in St. Johns, Ore., to Ray McVicker and Ruth Smith McVicker.

She was raised in Vancouver, Wash., graduating from Vancouver High School in 1944.

Marjorie married Loyd Molyneux on April 1, 1945, in Vancouver. They raised their five children in Vancouver and then moved to Mt. Vernon, Ore., where they ranched. In September 1972 Lloyd passed away. She married Ben Breon on Jan. 14, 1976.

Marjorie and Ben rode for three years for the Dayville Grazing Association in the Murderers Creek area. They moved to Crook County and lived on the 96 Ranch for 25 years. They retired to the Burns area in 2003.

Marjorie was buried at Moon Creek Cemetery in Mt. Vernon.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, Loyd J. Molyneux, grandson Kevin Molyneux, great-grandson Cameron Banes, and parents Ray and Ruth McVicker.

Marjorie is survived by her husband Bensell Breon of Burns; brother, Richard McVicker of Vancouver; daughters, Susan and Torrey Emery of Arcadia, Neb., Judy and Gerald Tikka of Battle Ground, Wash. and Anita Molyneux of Coconut Creek, Fla.; sons, Dennis Molyneux of Burns, and Rodney and Carolyn Molyneux of Vancouver; stepson Bensell Breon Jr. of Siletz, Ore.; 12 grandchildren, 38 great-grandchildren and 19 nieces and nephews.

LaFollette's Chapel was in charge of funeral arrangements.
