Enjoy Labor Day Weekend at Comedy on the Coast

In August, Fielding West, Susan Rice and Tim Haldeman will make you laugh for three days straight. You'll have three chances to see them on Aug. 29-31 at Comedy on the Coast.

Described by the Los Angeles Times as "his jokes are quicker than the eye," Fielding West consistently maintains the full attention of the audience with hilarious illusions, tongue-in-cheek renditions of classic magic and good-natured audience participation.

His wild reputation as a stellar comedy magician comes from his numerous appearances in television specials, including A&E's An Evening at the Improv, Caroline's Comedy Hour and NBC's World's Wildest Magicians, hosted by Penn & Teller.

Susan Rice, a Pacific Northwest native, began her comedy career in college. Her love of the performing arts began in San Diego and then she moved on to Portland, Ore., where she worked in banking and pursued a career in acting. Rice discovered comedy in a little pub called The Leaky Roof Tavern and from the moment she stepped on stage, she knew she had found her career.

For 15 years, she has been a professional standup comedian. Television appearances include An Evening at the Improv and Comedy Central. Comedy clubs include Catch a Rising Star, The Ice House, The Laff Stop, The Improve and The Laugh Factory.

Tim Haldeman – one of the true "Hollywood Kids" – grew up in and around show business. With his dad as a movie production manager and his aunt as the lead script supervisor for 20th Century Fox for 29 years, he was destined for a career in show business.

Haldeman has appeared in more than 100 television shows and 80 commercials. His movies include Dante's Peak and Private Benjamin and his numerous TV appearances include recurring roles on The Drew Carey Show, 3rd Rock from the Sun and most recently Disney's Zack and Cody.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tickets are $15.

Bruce Hornsby & The Noisemakers Bring Their Sound to the Beach

Bruce Hornsby and The Noisemakers are coming to Chinook Winds on Aug. 22-23, gracing the stage with 20 years as a major label recording artist.

Hornsby, a 12-time Grammy nominee, has won three Grammys – in 1987 with The Range for Best New Artist for their debut album The Way It Is; in 1989 for Best Bluegrass Recording for his version of his hit The Valley Road, which appeared on the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band's Will The Circle Be Unbroken, Volume II; and with Branford Marsalis in 1993 for Best Pop Instrumental Performance for their song for the Barcelona Olympics, Barcelona Mona.

Hornsby's latest nominations were in 2004 for Song F, from his Columbia album Halcyon Days and in 2006 for Song H from his box set, Intersections.

Known around the music industry as a collaborator, Hornsby has been sought after by a veritable "who's who" in the music business. He has played on more than 100 records over the years, including albums by Bob Dylan, Don Henley, the Grateful Dead, Bob Seger, Crosby Stills and Nash, Stevie Nicks, Bonnie Raitt, Shawn Colvin, Bela Fleck, Clint Black, Ricky Skaggs, Randy Scruggs and Willie Nelson.

In addition, Hornsby was a part-time member of the Grateful Dead from September 1990 to March 1992, performing more than 100 concerts in America and Europe. He appears on four Dead album releases.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tickets range from $30-$45.
