Billy Ray Cyrus Joins Anniversary Weekend Celebration

2008 CMT Awards host and multi-platinum recording artist Billy Ray Cyrus will perform live with his hits Achy, Breaky Heart, Ready, Set, Don't Go, and Could've Been Me at Chinook Winds on June 19-20.

Enamored of baseball, Cyrus intended to become another Johnny Bench as he grew up in Flatwoods, Ky. While attending Georgetown College on a baseball scholarship, he bought a guitar and decided immediately that athletics wasn't the proper direction for his life.

Instead, he formed a band called Sly Dog with his brother and gave himself a 10-month deadline for finding a place to play. One week prior to that cutoff date, the group went to work as the house band for a club in Ironton, Ohio, where they remained for two years. When a 1984 fire destroyed the bar – and Cyrus' equipment – he moved to Los Angeles to pursue his career.

Eventually, he returned to Kentucky and commuted regularly to Nashville in search of a record deal. Grand Ole Opry star Del Reeves got Mercury Records to take a look and division head Harold Shedd signed him in the summer of 1990.

When his first album came out in mid-1992, Cyrus – with his good looks, sculpted body and the infectious Achy, Breaky Heart – became an instant groundbreaking sensation.

Spending five weeks at the top of the country charts, Achy, Breaky Heart made his debut album, Some Gave All, a blockbuster success. By the time it fell off the charts, it had sold more than 9 million copies and spent 17 weeks on the top of the pop charts.

In March 2001, Cyrus hit TV screens in the role of a country doctor moved to Manhattan in the sitcom Doc. He returned to the music world with 2003's Time Flies and Other Side. In 2006, he released I Wanna Be Your Joe and also appeared on The Disney Channel's Hannah Montana, starring his real-life daughter, Miley.

Show time is 8 p.m., Ticket prices range from $25 to $40.

Energetic Entertainers Highlight Comedy Show

Chas Elstner headlines Comedy on the Coast at Chinook Winds on June 26-27, sharing the stage with Steve Smith and Sam Demaris.

Elstner has been a stand-up comedian for more than 24 years and has written, performed and produced two comedy albums. Some of his most outstanding accomplish-

He has been the opening act for Gloria Estefan & the Miami Sound Machine, The Pointer Sisters, Sha Na Na and various others throughout his career. With all of his live performance talents, he has developed a humor that captivates audiences of all ages.

He is a master of mouth sound effects and has an array of character voices that add to his energetic approach to comedy and leaves you with a lasting and entertaining impression.

Award-winning stand-up comedian Smith has made more than 50 television appearances both as a comedian and an actor. They include shows on HBO, MTV, Showtime and Comedy Central.

Not only does he kill on the comedy stage, he was killed in two movies as well, Nightmare on Elm Street 2 and Slaughterhouse Rock.

The audience never knows what to expect when watching the very funny Demaris. His performances are fast-paced and highly energetic and will often leave audiences wondering, "Did he just say what I think he said?"

He has performed across the country, including opening the Maxim Magazine Real Men of Comedy show in Houston, Texas, as well as a two-week tour of Iraq to perform for U.S. Army troops.
