

A lot of time has gone by – minutes, hours, days and months have turned into 18 years! So many memories of you two “men.” To watch you grow from tiny lil babies to toddlers and transition into independent youth and now men. It’s overwhelming that you two have stuck together through all types of situations. Now you’ve become adults, technically. To me, you’re both precious. Huge, full of life and much more to come your way.

Happy Birthday to you two. It’s an honor to be your mom and your aunt. I pray that you both will stay connected and be true to each other for life. Be each other’s teacher. Have each other’s back always, no matter what.

I love you and have a wonderful fun-filled 18th birthday! Oh yeah – don’t spend all your money in one spot!

Love, Mom and Aunt Jen
