Meat Loaf brings iconic sound, new songs to Chinook Winds stage

Performing live in the showroom at Chinook Winds Casino Resort on Jan. 14-15 will be the iconic American rock star Meat Loaf.

This master of music will sing songs that raised him to the top of the music scene with hits like Bat Out of Hell, Bat Out of Hell II, Welcome to the Neighborhood and more.

For the past 35 years, the man born Marvin Lee Aday has been a towering monument on the musical landscape. His legendary 1977 album Bat Out of Hell transformed this former high school football player, nightclub bouncer and stage actor into one of the great American rock-'n'-roll icons. That record, with its staggering operatic sound and impassioned vocals, has sold more than 43 million albums worldwide – still one of the biggest-selling records ever.

Now more than 30 years after he exploded onto the world stage, Meat Loaf is back with a new record, Hang Cool Teddy Bear (a title taken from a line in the classic Russ Meyer trash movie Beyond the Valley of the Dolls). From opener Peace on Earth to closer Elvis in Vegas, its 13 tracks drag the classic Meat Loaf sound kicking and screaming into the 21st century.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tickets range from $70 to $85.
