Hoover certified as water distribution operator

Max Hoover is now certified as a water distribution operator – class I, having met the educational and experience qualifications of the Association of Boards of Certification for the Oregon Department of Human Services. He recently passed an examination in the areas of performing administrative duties, drinking water regulations, installing equipment, maintaining equipment, disinfection, operating equipment, system design, system inspection, water quality, performing safety and security procedures, and math.

100 percent on attendance and tests

with love from Mom and Dad

Congratulations to our daughter, Kaleena Marie Kessinger, for a 100 percent attendance award presented to her along with 100 percent on all test scores throughout the school year.

Keep up the good work – we are so proud of you.
