Opportunities for Schools

Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Young Scholars Program

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Young Scholars Program honors 50-75 seventh-graders who demonstrate outstanding academic ability, accomplishments outside of class and financial need.

Those selected receive financial support for educational and extracurricular activities, as well as one-on-one help with applying to high schools, colleges, summer programs and more.

Applications are available at www.jkcf.org/scholarships/young-scholars-program. To learn more, visit the website, e-mail jkcinfo@jhu.edu or call 410-735-6270.

Youth Silent Film Festival

The Youth Silent Film Festival (YSFF) will be a sanctioned event of the 2011 Portland Rose Festival on May 24-26 at the Hollywood Theatre in Portland, Ore. The competition is open to filmmakers 20 years old and younger.

Young filmmakers can create a modern version of a silent film, see it on the big screen with live accompaniment and win cash prizes. Submissions must be three minutes in length, based upon one of five pre-recorded musical themes, family-friendly/appropriate for viewers of all ages and use only original footage with no copyrighted material.

There is no entry fee. The deadline for submission of final films is April 15.

Guidelines and submission forms are at www.makesilentfilm.com/; contact the organizers at info@makesilentfilm.com.

Youth volunteerism in rural areas

Oregon Volunteers needs participants for a pilot project to increase youth volunteerism in rural areas. If your school or district serves a large number of rural or low-income students, please contact Justin Prazak, AmeriCorps VISTA at Oregon Volunteers, at justin@oregonvolunteers.org or 503-725-5916.
