

Congratulations to Tribal member Athena Shepherd, who has been working with Anna Renville, Tribal services specialist in the Portland Area Office. She recently got a job with H&M, a company that sells clothing and cosmetics at 2,200 stores around the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeremy Hill

Jeremy Hill and Beth Cain were married Feb. 11 in Keizer, Ore., with their daughter, Sierra Marie Lane Hill, at their side. There was a large bridal party and all the parents were there, as well as Jeremy's grandmothers, Donna Woods of Otis, Ore., and Ella Mae James of Cornelius, Ore.

Several people came in from out of state to attend the wedding. A reception followed at the Renaissance Inn in Keizer.

For their honeymoon, Jeremy and Beth spent five days in Las Vegas.

Jeremy works at Chemawa Indian School and Beth works for Shangri-La. They are making their home in Salem, Ore.

We need you!

As your Tribal veterans coordinator (TVR), I wish to encourage all of our Tribal member veterans to submit a copy of their DD214 to our Siletz Tribal veterans office. This will accomplish many things.

It will begin the process of enrolling you in Veterans Affairs programs. While it's true that the VA has a lot of requirements, the only way to find out if our veterans qualify is to enroll.

Also for those Siletz Tribal families that have veteran loved ones buried on Government Hill who do not have a headstone, I can apply for a military headstone through our office to the VA.

When we have your DD214 in hand, it also puts you in line to have your name added to our Living Veterans Memorial on Government Hill. It takes awhile to accumulate enough names for the memorial company to come out to do the sandblasting.

Your DD214 helps us show your proof of service. We unfortunately cannot just place your name with a phone call or a letter unless it's accompanied with a copy of your DD-214.

I thank all of our veterans for their service to our nation, for answering the call to serve and protect our country. I'm here to help you in any way I can.

We also are in the process of making our Siletz Tribal Honor Guard one of the best. We can only be the best if you choose to join our proud Siletz Honor Guard team.

Thank you,
Tony Molina, TVR and Honor Guard Director
