

Time to apply for Tribal Youth Educational Employment (TYEE) Program

Applications due June 24 for youth who want to gain practical work experience over the summer

Siletz Tribal youth age 14-17 are invited to apply for the 2011 Tribal Youth Educational Employment (TYEE) Program.

TYEE is an opportunity for youth to gain practical work experience over the summer. The program begins July 11 and continues until Aug. 15.

To qualify: You must be a Siletz Tribal member between the ages of 14-17 who resides within the 11-county service area and is returning to high school in the fall of 2011. Youth age 18 will be accepted if they are returning to high school this fall.

To apply: You should receive an application in the mail. If you do not, call or stop by the Tribal office in your area. The contact person for each office is listed at right. Bring verification to document the following:

- Tribal enrollment
- Age
- Proof of residence
- Social Security card or proof of application for one

- Current grade report

If the number of applicants exceeds available positions, priority will be given to:

- Complete applications received by June 24
- Youth age 14-17 with little or no work experience who have not participated in TYEE
- Youth with a 2.0 GPA or higher, although applicants with less than 2.0 GPA may be considered
