Executive Chef Jack Strong talks about new menu items now available at Chinook's Seafood Grill.

Chinook's Seafood Grill gets new look and new menu

Grand reopening shows changes in restaurant open for breakfast, lunch and dinner

A new fresh look and an equally fresh menu were celebrated at the grand reopening and ribbon cutting at Chinook's Seafood Grill on June 30.

Facilities Director Lee Scantling and his crew worked long hours to give the restaurant and lounge a major upgrade, with an interior design that's bold and bright, sparkly and sophisticated. Restaurant Manager Peter Morris was all smiles as he showed off the handiwork of the Chinook Winds facilities crew.

Members of the Siletz Tribal Council and Chinook Winds executive staff mingled with members of the media and elected and appointed officials from Lincoln City while sampling bites of Chef

Jack Strong's delightful creations tailored specifically for the restaurant.

Chef Jack explained the ingredients in the tempting entrees and introduced the kitchen crew who assisted him in his creations. Will Kiefer provided sounds to munch and mingle by while many enjoyed the wine that was paired with the entrees.

Open 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, the restaurant offers an ocean-view breakfast that can be enjoyed for as little as $5.95. Go for the classic breakfast of eggs, toast and hash browns or satisfy your taste buds with Northwest marionberry pancakes.

Local delicacies make up the appetizer menu, with known favorites of Dungeness crab cocktails to oyster shooters listed among the many other offerings from the Pacific. For a complete seafood extravaganza, the coastal appetizer platter gives a sampling of steamer clams, cracked crab, peel-and-eat shrimp and calamari served with butter, lemon and cocktail sauce.

The lunch and dinner menus offer traditional fare and entrées with just a little something extra. Seared herb salmon, an herb-crusted salmon topped with Dungeness crab with a rich Bearnaise sauce or fennel pollen-dusted scallops offer a culinary adventure.

With the new look and menu, Chinook's Seafood Grill is sure to become a favorite of both local and out-of-town guests. The restaurant definitely will provide a top-notch dining experience for those who stay and play at Chinook Winds.

Chinook's Seafood Grill is just another reason why "It's Better at the Beach."

Attend free Safety Fair at casino

Chinook Winds Casino Resort will hold its Fourth Annual Safety Fair on Aug. 19. Designed to educate children and families on safety, this event will be held in the casino's upper-level parking lot from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

A carnival atmosphere with drawings and activities for children are all part of this free event, which is co-sponsored by Chinook Winds, Century Link and Jim's Mobil Home Park in Toledo, Ore.

More than 50 vendors have signed up to offer information on ways to be safe, including water safety, tsunami escape, car seat safety and information provided by Good Samaritan Hospital.

Fire trucks, rescue equipment, a Coast Guard helicopter and Smokey the Bear will be on hand along with KBCH radio with a live broadcast from the Safety Fair.

For more information, please visit chinookwindscasino.com or call 888-CHINOOK or 541-996-5825.
