

Rick Springfield

Springfield comes to coast with high-energy concerts, string of hits

Rock and movie star Rick Springfield will perform in concert on Oct. 28-29 at Chinook Winds Casino Resort.

Springfield has sold more than 19 million records, including 17 top-40 hits. He has performed for millions of fans over the last three decades and continues to play more than 100 shows a year.

In 1981 after years of struggle, Springfield found himself in the midst of recording the pop/rock album Working Class Dog and was cast to play the young, eligible Dr. Noah Drake on the popular daytime drama General Hospital.

That same year he skyrocketed to the top of Billboard's charts with Jessie's Girl and I've Done Everything for You. The following year, he won a Grammy for Best Male Rock Vocal Performance.

In 1982, Springfield followed the success of Working Class Dog with Success Hasn't Spoiled Me Yet. The album contained a string of top-40 hits, including Don't Talk to Strangers that charted at No. 2. He was nominated for a second Grammy and in 1983 was nominated for a third, in addition to garnering an American Music Award.

His 1983 album Living in Oz went platinum, resulting in the hits Human Touch and Affair of the Heart. The following year, his single Love Somebody from the soundtrack album to the movie Hard to Hold (in which Springfield made his big screen debut) hit No. 5 on the Billboard singles chart.

After years of live performances, grueling tour schedules and recording back-to-back hit albums with chart-topping singles, Springfield decided to take a break to spend time with his family when his first son was born in 1985.

During his hiatus, he released the albums Rock of Life and Sahara Snow. He returned to the concert stage in 1998 with the release of his album Karma. He immediately was performing to sold-out crowds. Springfield hit the ground running in 2005 by releasing The Day After Yesterday, a collection of his own interpretations of hit songs he wishes he had written. He ended 2005 with his long-anticipated return to General Hospital in the same role he originated nearly 25 years ago. He continues to make appearances on the show.

In 2006, Springfield released a concert DVD, Live in Rockford, which was filmed live as part of the HDNet Concert Series at the historic Coronado Theatre in Rockford, Ill., and showcases his extremely high energy performances.

He attracts new fans wherever he goes with his unique brand of audience interaction, unstoppable energy and unforgettable songs that have become part of the soundtrack to people's lives.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tickets range from $20 to $35.

Gill shares These Days, other hits in two concerts at Chinook Winds

Country star Vince Gill will play two shows on Oct. 14-15 at Chinook Winds.

Gill will perform the songs that got him noticed, including When I Call Your Name, and hits off of his groundbreaking four-CD collection entitled These Days, released in 2006.

Gill started playing in high school with a bluegrass group. After graduating in 1975 he continued performing with bluegrass and country groups, among them the Ricky Skaggs Band, until 1983 when he signed with RCA records.

He moved his family to Nashville to follow his dream of being a country music star. In 1987, he achieved his first top-five single, Cinderella, from his album The Way Back Home.

The song peaked at No. 2 and earned Gill his first CMA Award (Single of the Year) and his first Grammy Award (Best Male Country Vocal Performance) in 1990.

The next single, Never Knew Lonely, peaked at No. 3 and the album was certified platinum by the Recording Industry Association of America for sales of more than one million copies.

Gill has sold more than 26 million albums. He has earned 18 CMA Awards, including Entertainer of the Year in 1993 and 1994. He is tied with George Strait for having won the most CMA Male Vocalist Awards (five) and currently is second only to Brooks and Dunn for accumulating the most CMA Awards in history. He has received 19 Grammy Awards to date, the most of any male country artist.

Vince Gill

Gill is a member of the Grand Ole Opry. In August 2007, the Country Music Association inducted him into the coveted Country Music Hall of Fame.

Besides being known for his talent as a musician and songwriter, Gill is regarded as one of country music's best known humanitarians, participating in hundreds of charitable events throughout his career. An avid golfer, he helped create the annual Vince Gill Pro-Celebrity Invitational Golf Tournament ("The Vinny") in 1993 in order to help support junior golf programs throughout Tennessee.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tickets range from $70 to $85.
