Photovoltaic Entry Level Training and Examination

This course is for individuals wanting to get into the solar field. This course does not certify individuals to install PV Systems.

The training provides an introduction to the fundamental principles of the application, design, installation, and operation of grid-tied and stand-alone photovoltaic (PV) systems.

The PV Learning Objectives include ten (10) skill sets:

1. PV Markets and Applications
2. Safety Basics
3. Electricity Basics
4. Solar Energy Fundamentals
5. PV Module Fundamentals
6. System Components
7. PV System Sizing Principles
8. PV System Electrical Design
9. PV System Mechanical Design
10. Performance Analysis, Maintenance and Troubleshooting

Upon completion, participants will sit for the NABCEP PV Entry Level examination. Candidates receiving a passing score of 65% or higher will receive a letter signed by the Chairperson of NABCEP's Board and a suitable-for-framing document listing the Candidate's name, date, and NABCEP identification number.

Squaxin Island?

The Squaxin Island Tribe is purchasing undivided fractionated interest in allotments on Squaxin Island. At least twenty-four (24) tribes in the surrounding area have members eligible to sell their interests.

The allotments include:

ALLOTMENT #	ALLOTEE	ALLOTMENT #	ALLOTEE
3	Isaac / Charvriest	17	Jyee Bob
4	Old Man Sindam	18a	Peter Klabsch
8	Old Man Sedhuk	19a	John Sealth
12	Tom	20	Henry Kospel
13	Kate Charley	21	Toboltra
14	Old Man Sollarah	22	Jack / Yesapah
16	John Senakub

The Tribe is paying individuals the appraised value of the land, the full fair market value of the timber stands established in the buffer zones, and 50% of the value of timber within the buffer zones. Generally timber cannot be harvested within the buffer zones established in the Tribe's Forest Management Plan. The Squaxin Island Tribe will only be able to purchase interest on allotments that have been appraised by the BIA, Office of Special Trustees. Appraisals are conducted annually.

The Tribe is buying undivided interest on a first come - first served basis. The date of your application will determine your priority status.
