

Graduates!

Victoria Quitevis Cal State, Sacramento

We are very proud to congratulate Victoria Andrea Quitevis, who graduated from California State University, Sacramento on May 19 with a bachelor's in social work with honors cum laude.

On May 20, Victoria also participated in the Native American Graduation/Recognition Ceremony at the university. This fall, Victoria will move on to graduate school at the same university to earn a master's in education: school counseling.

Victoria understood the importance of education and with that knew the more education, the better the job. She wants to work in counseling at all school levels and also has a desire to teach classes at a community college working with young adults.

In addition, Victoria would like to work with the American Indian community and be a positive role model for the younger generation by teaching them the importance of education.

We want to salute Victoria for all her hard work. Victoria continued to strive to be an excellent student, even with the loss of her father in December 2009.

Victoria is a Siletz Tribal member and the daughter of the late Andrew W. Quitevis III. Her grandfather is Andrew W. Quitevis II, late great-grandmother was Mildred Griggs; late great-auntie was Sister Francella Mary (Florence A. Griggs); and great-great-grandmother was Amanda West Griggs.

We are so very proud of Victoria. Love always from Mom, Miguel, Andrew and Grandma Rosemary and family. Your dad is proudly watching over you.

Kassandra Rilatos Siletz Valley

With love from Mom, Dad and your whole family

To our beautiful and amazing daughter, Kassandra Little Pearl Rilatos – It seems like yesterday you graduated Head Start and now you're graduating high school.

You've accomplished everything you've set your mind to, like getting your black belt, becoming the amazing talented singer and performer you are, to going to high school and college almost full time this year. You've proven that the sky is the limit and you can do anything you want in life and there is no doubt you will.

We are so proud of you, honey. Thank you for being such a wonderful daughter. We love you with all our heart. May all your dreams in life come true. Congratulations 2012 – you did it!

Savanna Rilatos Toledo Jr.-Sr. High

With love from Mom, Dad and the whole family

To our beautiful daughter, Savanna Marie Rilatos – Congratulations on your eighth-grade graduation. We're all so proud of you, how you strive for excellence in all you do and how you put your heart into every sport you play. We admire how loyal and protective you are with family and friends.

There's no doubt in our minds that you can achieve anything, like going to Harvard to be an attorney.

Have fun in high school. We love you so much and you'll always be our baby no matter what.
