

Photos by Diane Rodriguez

Nevin, Justina, baby Andrew and Chase Rilatos await the start of Run to the Rogue.

Perry, Joshua and Ava Johnson

Little Miss Siletz Chelo Garcia and Junior Miss Siletz SuSun Fisher enjoy a moment before the start.

Run to the Rogue is a 234-mile journey that commemorates the removal of Siletz Tribal ancestors from their homeland in the Rogue River area. The route follows the same one used by the ancestors who were forced to march north to the Coast Reservation in the mid-1800s.

Diane Troyer and Pam Rilatos take a photo of Mason Chamberlin.

