

Native American Heritage Month
School Visits

Nov. 7, 2012, and Nov. 28, 2012

Students from Taft and Oceanlake elementary schools in Lincoln City, Ore., visit the Tribal administration building in Siletz on Nov. 7 as General Manager Brenda Bremner (left) introduces them to Tribal accomplishments and government.

At the day's final stop, Kathy Robinson (below), Language Project coordinator, talks to students outside of the dance house in Siletz.

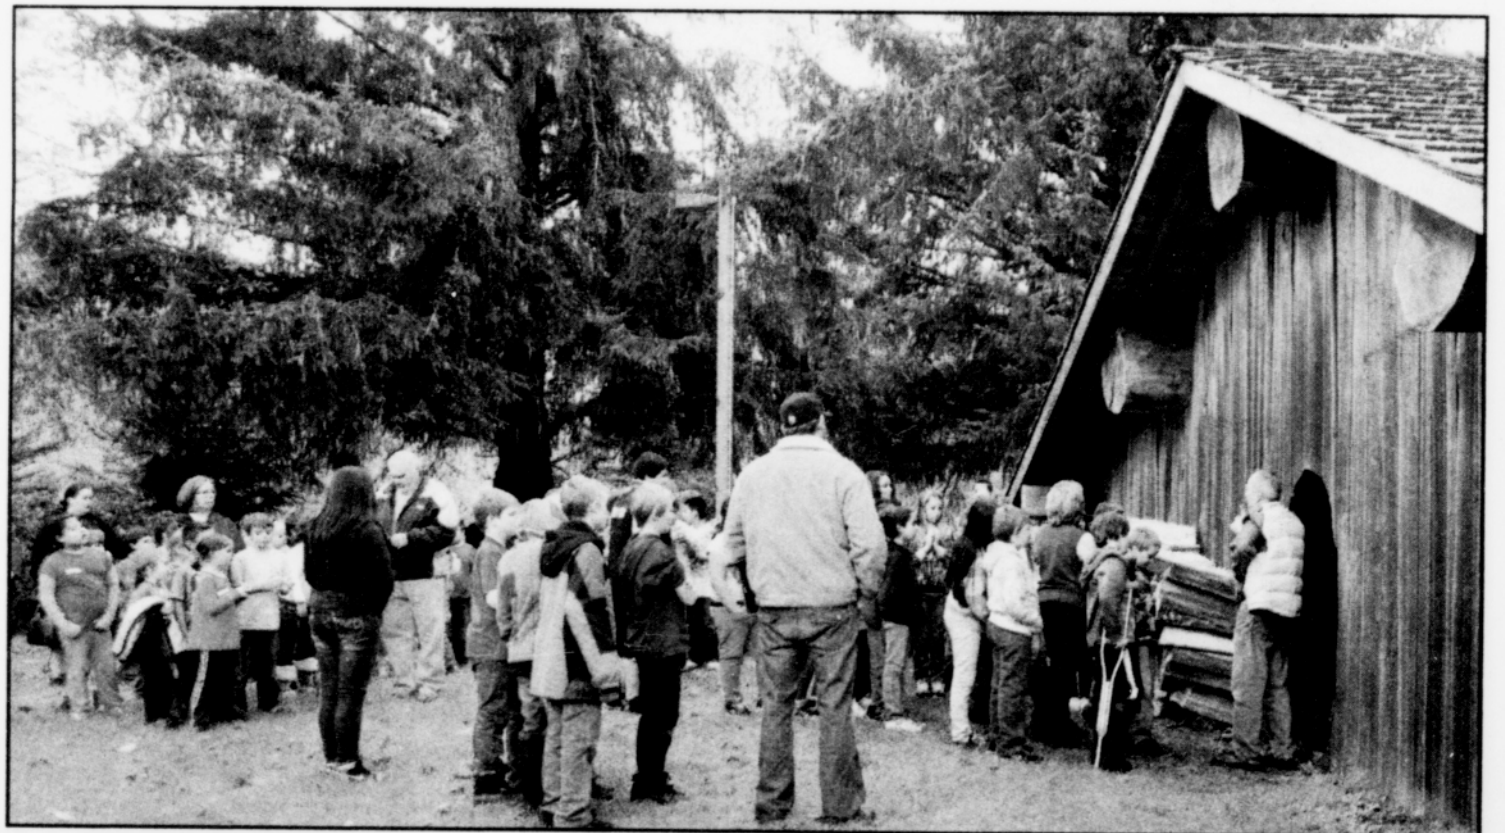

Photo by Natasha Kavanaugh

Students from Newport Intermediate School in Newport, Ore., visit the dance house Nov. 28. Bud Lane and Brenda Bremner shared information on Tribal culture, government and history with the students.

Photos by Diane Rodriguez

Bud Lane, Language and Traditional Arts instructor, prepares the Taft and Oceanlake students to enter the dance house (right), where they gathered around a fire as he talked about Nee-Dash dances and sang Nee-Dash songs.

Taft and Oceanlake students visit the Lhuuke Illahee Fish Hatchery (bottom right) east of Siletz. Dillon Blacketer, Aquatic program tech, led the students on the hatchery tour.

Chemawa Indian School

Craft Show

December 15, 2012
10:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Admission: Donation of Canned food and/or Campbells
Soup Labels

HAND CRAFTED GIFTS

Chemawa Indian School Gymnasium
3700 Chemawa Rd NE, Salem, OR 97305

Vendors, contact Karen Serna 503-399-5721 ext. 225
Email Address: karen.serna@bis.edu

Sponsored by Chemawa Pow Wow Club - A non Profit Organization

Chemawa Is a Alcohol, drug and smoke free campus!