Tribal member Mike Fisher named general manager of Chinook Winds

Siletz Tribal Chairman Delores Pigsley has announced the appointment of Mike Fisher as general manager of Chinook Winds Casino Resort.

Fisher has served as interim general manager since February 2012 and previously served on the startup Ad Hoc Gaming Committee, starting in 1993. He then became one of the first five Siletz Tribal gaming commissioners. He later held the position of compliance director for the casino from 2005-2007.

In 2007, Fisher left Chinook Winds to be general manager of Kla-Mo-Ya Casino in Chiloquin, Ore. He has more than 15 years of experience in the gaming industry.

Fisher's employment with the Tribe coupled with his drive and enthusiasm already has made a significant contribution to the success of Chinook Winds since February.

"Mike has been an integral part of our casino operations and growth," said Pigsley. "We are very happy to appoint a Tribal member as general manager at Chinook Winds Casino Resort. We are confident that his gaming and regulatory experience coupled with his commitment to the property, the community and the Tribe are the exact qualities we need to ensure our future growth and success."

Mike Fisher

When asked about his return, Fisher said "I am glad to be back at CWCR. I look forward to any challenges that may come my way and to celebrating successes in 2013 and beyond."
