Thank You Siletz Tribe for $1,200 for UO Graduates

The University Of Oregon – Native American Student Union (NASU) would like to thank the Siletz Tribal Charitable Contribution Fund for the donation of $1,200 for Pendleton blankets for NASU graduates. They were presented with the blankets at the UO Mother's Day Pow-Wow.

Dreonna Johnson
Congratulations to our daughter, Dreonna Johnson, for graduating from Franklin High School (Portland, Ore.). This is the beginning of your brilliant future.
We're so proud of you.
Love, Mom and Dad

OCF has grants for programs that are outside of school time

The Oregon Community Foundation (OCF) will award grants ranging from $40,000 to $120,000 per year for three years to Out-of-School Time programs that promote academic success and serve low-income students, students of color and rural students.

OCF seeks proposals from Out-of-School Time programs that meet one or both of the following criteria: Utilize quality practices and wish to expand the number of youth they reach and/or wish to deepen the effectiveness of their programming by adopting and integrating evidence-based, culturally specific or culturally adapted best-practice programming.

Additional information, requirements and application details can be found at oregoncf.org/grants-scholarships/grants/k12-student-success.

Deadline to apply is Aug. 1, 2013, for a funding decision in November 2013.
