Important things to know about changing your mailing address

Where will my per capita be sent?

Per capita checks and minor trust updates are mailed to the same address as Siletz News.

Tribal members listed as a Missing Moccasin no longer receive mailings from the Tribe. An address update will be needed to start getting your mail.

How do I become a missing moccasin?

When your mail returns to the Tribe! When this happens, we mail Information Change forms to forwarding addresses reported by the postal service. We try to contact you by phone. We make every attempt to get an updated address from you. Tribal members whose mail returns repeatedly are reported as Missing Moccasins.

How do I update my address?

Contact the Enrollment Department right away to update your and your minor child(ren)'s information. You will need to provide your roll number or date of birth. For your security, information changes must be updated in writing and must include your signature.

A form to do this is available online on the Tribal website – ctsi.nsn.us. Click on Government Listings; click on Enrollment, then print out the Information Change form located on the right of the screen. This form can be returned via mail, e-mail or fax.

To receive the necessary form, you also can contact the Enrollment Department by phone at 541-444-8258 or 800-922-1399, ext. 1258; by e-mail at covas@ctsi.nsn.us; or by mail at P.O. Box 549, Siletz, OR 97380-0549.

Note: Be sure to sign your form. Your personal information cannot be changed without your signature, which Enrollment staff verifies.

Plan ahead!

Don't wait until the last minute to update your address with the Enrollment Department.

Your per capita check and minor trust updates could be delayed.
