

Hotel TV Distribution Dates

Tuesday, Dec. 10

Tribal members can pick them up from storage containers at the hotel from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

If we have any remaining after distribution to Tribal members – Thursday, Dec. 12 – We'll have another distribution from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. for Tribal members and employees.

These are the old tube TVs. Most of them are 27-inch models. There are approximately 160 to distribute.

Take a break from holiday mayhem with Laughcatchers Comedy Tour

Chinook Winds Casino Resort welcomes the Laughcatchers Comedy Tour to the Showroom by the Sea on Dec. 14.

This sidesplitting tour is making its way across America and features the comedic talents of Alex Reymundo, Tammy Pescatelli, Brad Upton, and more.

Treat yourself to a hysterical night off from your holiday shopping to see some big-name comics. Better yet; this would be a terrific place to have your traditional Christmas party for you, your friends and family.

First, drop the kids off at our safe and secure Games Galore Arcade and PlayPalace Childcare Center. Next, have a scrumptious dinner at any one of three sit-down restaurants, then laugh your behind off at the show, sashay upstairs to dance with DJ Metal in the Rogue River Lounge and try your luck at any of our video, slots or live games

Self-proclaimed Red-Nexican comic/writer/actor/producer/cool dude Alex Reymundo spent years touring with Blue Collar's Ron White. Reymundo's Showtime and Comedy Central specials showcased his "Hick-Spanic" comedy style.

He's been the highlight of White's Salute to the Troops with Lewis Black and Kathleen Madigan, P. Diddy's Bad Boys of Comedy and is one of The Original Latin Kings of Comedy alongside Cheech Marin, Paul Rodriguez, George Lopez and Joey Medina.

Twenty years of standup comedy is accentuated by performances in Permanent Vacation, The Movement and El Matador. He does voice-overs for Disney's Cars video games and has more than 20 years of touring under his belt, performing in such unique places as on deck of the USS Roosevelt while at sea.

Are you having a problem finding your funny? Tammy Pescatelli is the comedic doctor to cure your sourpuss.

She found her funny bone growing up in a large, crazy Italian family. Marriage into an even bigger and nuttier Italian clan gave her more avenues for her comic quest. Pescatelli claims she named her son after her husband "... to prepare for Alzheimer's!" When asked where she gets her material, she replies, "I wake up!"

She co-created, wrote, produced and starred in WeTV's A Stand Up Mother. She made it to the final five on Last Comic Standing 2, solidifying her as one of the sharpest women in the comedy world.

This winner of Comedy Central's 2010 Stand-Up Showdown is seen all over television – The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, Rocco's Dinner Party, The Talk, NICK Mom's Night Out, Standup in Stilettos, Roast of Parks Bonifay and Last Comic Standing: The Best of the Best, to name a few.

Pescatelli has her own special on Comedy Central and is perfectly cast in the sleeper movie, Everybody Wants to be Italian. You also can see her in the documentary Single and indie film Made in Brooklyn. She currently tours the country promoting her latest comedy DVD, Finding the Funny.

Brad Upton appeared at Caesar's Palace as part of the HBO Comedy Festival and is a past winner of the Las Vegas Comedy Festival. More than 29 years in the business and more than 5,400 live shows make this Seattle-based comic respected and extremely sought-after among his peers.

Upton has been the opener for Kenny Rogers, Dolly Parton, Joan Rivers, Lewis Black and The Smothers Brothers. He is a regular guest on NPR's Rewind and his new CD, Smart Guy, Stupid World, is heard regularly on XM and Sirius Satellite Radio (available on iTunes). He is currently on tour with the legendary Johnny Mathis.

"Brad Upton has mastered the nearly impossible task of appealing to people from the ages of 18 to 80," says The Seattle Times. If you aren't one already, you'll soon be a Brad Upton fan.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tickets range from $10 to $15.

Chinook Winds Casino Resort in Lincoln City, Ore., offers 24-hour Las Vegas-style gaming, an 18-hole golf course, headline entertainment from some of music's most legendary stars, three full-service restaurants, a secure child care facility and arcade, and a 227-room ocean-view hotel.

To the editor:

My name is Reggie Butler, Jr. I'm a Siletz Tribal member and want to announce that I am running for Tribal Council this upcoming election year. At a later date I will submit my candidate statement.

Respectfully,
Reggie Butler, Jr.

Dear Tribal members:

I am Gloria Ingle, an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians. I am the daughter of Edward and Dolores Rilatos, granddaughter of Tuton and Pearl Rilatos as well as great-granddaughter to Hoxie and Lizzie Simmons and Kate Chantell.

I would like to take this opportunity to let you know that during the last General Council meeting, I declared my candidacy for our Tribal Council.

I am a retired teacher and K-12 principal. I graduated from Sheldon Jackson College with a Bachelor of Arts degree and continued on with degrees from the University of Alaska system, including my superintendent's certification. After retirement I was hired as a consultant to do performance evaluations of district principals. I also worked with school staff to develop specific school plans for improvement.

I am running for a position on the council because I believe my skills will help the Tribe as it progresses through these years of economic ups and downs. Also, as a retired person I have the time to commit to our Tribe.

I will be attending the Candidate's Fair and other functions. I will also write a more detailed statement that will be in the election pamphlet and newspaper. Please feel free to talk with me. I believe I am a good listener or please email me at jessiemarie1944@yahoo.com.

Sincerely,
Gloria Ingle
