Fisher named resort project manager

Michael Fisher has worked in the construction industry for about 16 years with hands-on experience in numerous phases of construction.

"I really look forward to playing a major role in enhancing the changes and improvements here at Chinook Winds Casino Resort," said Fisher.

"I'm excited for Michael to share his wealth of knowledge in project management with our team. Michael comes to us with years of experience and will be a great asset to the Facilities Team that will help us complete the numerous projects we have lined up," said Facilities Director Sean Sheridan.

Fisher previously worked at Chinook Winds when it first opened as an arcade attendant.

He enjoys the outdoors, spending time with his wife and three daughters and watching his kids play in all their sports.
