Caring continues with Operation Christmas Spirit; volunteers, hats, gloves, blankets, desserts needed

Operation Christmas Spirit provides a free traditional Christmas dinner to our community every year on Christmas Day from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Lincoln City Community Center.

Chinook Winds staff has started planning, supported by generous local support from volunteers and businesses. Thus far, a big "thank you" goes to the Lincoln City Community Center for the use of its kitchen and banquet room and North Lincoln Sanitary Service for free garbage pickup after the event.

The program still needs desserts to round out the tasty holiday meal. We've been able to count upon our generous bakers' contributions in years past. This year, we expect about 500 people to stop in for a traditional hot Christmas dinner.

If you would like to contribute a dessert, please drop it off at the community center on Dec. 24 between noon and 4 p.m. or on Christmas Day between 8 a.m. and noon.

Please donate new blankets, sleeping bags, hats and gloves desperately necessary for those without during the coming coastal cold weather. You can drop any of these new items off at Aces Sports Bar & Grill, Chinook Winds Marketing Department, Little Antique Mall, North Lincoln Sanitary, Kenny's IGA North and the community center right through Christmas Eve.

This annual event created years ago by Betty Fry feeds people who might otherwise have a bleak and hungry holiday or simply would otherwise be alone for their holiday meal. It is now sponsored by Chinook Winds, the community center and North Lincoln Sanitary.

Families and individuals join the celebration with Santa, Christmas music and a complete hot turkey dinner. From those who help serve to those who partake, this is a heartwarming event.

For further information and to volunteer your time on Christmas Day, contact Monica Logan at 541-557-4313 or Heather Hatton at 541-996-5766.

If you would like to deliver hot meals or you know someone who should be on the delivery list, please call 541-994-7731.
