

Will you receive your 2015 Tribal Council election ballot?

Election ballots are mailed to the same address as Siletz News.

Tribal members listed as a "Missing Moccasin" (see below) no longer receive general mailings from the Tribe. An address update is needed to start receiving your mail again. Missing Moccasins and not-voter-registered Tribal members will not be mailed a 2015 election ballot.

How do I become a Missing Moccasin?

When your mail returns to the Tribe! When this happens, the Enrollment Department mails Address Change forms to forwarding addresses reported by outside resources. We try contacting you by phone. We make every attempt to get an updated address from you. Tribal members whose mail returns repeatedly are reported as Missing Moccasins.

How do I update my address?

Contact the Enrollment Department right away to update your and your minor child(ren)'s information. You will need to provide your roll number or date of birth for identification purposes. For your security, information changes must be updated in writing and must include your signature.

The form to do this is available online at ctsi.nsn.us. Click on "Government Listings," click on "Enrollment," then print out the Address Change form located on the right of the screen. Address Change forms can be returned via mail, email or fax.

To receive the necessary update forms, you also can contact the Enrollment Department by telephone at 541-444-8258 or 800-922-1399, ext. 1258; or by email at covam@ctsi.nsn.us.

NOTE: Be sure to sign your form. Your personal information cannot be changed without your signature, which Enrollment staff will verify prior to changing the record.

Am I registered to vote?

If you have never voted, you might not be.

A total of 3,537 Tribal members will be eligible to vote in the 2015 Tribal Council election. Of those eligible, 2,317 are registered and have a current address on file.

2015 Tribal Council Election Voter Registration Statistics

A total of 1,147 Tribal members are not registered but have a current address on file for the mailing of a voter registration card. The remaining 77 eligible voters are Missing Moccasins who will not receive 2015 election mailings until an address update has been received.

To receive the necessary voter registration form, you can leave a request by voicemail for the Election Board at 541-444-8256 or 800-922-1399, ext. 1256; or email at elections@ctsi.nsn.us.

Make your vote count by planning ahead!

Don't wait until the last minute to update your address and/or register to vote.

Your ballot could be delayed.
