Travis Tritt is live at Chinook Winds

Country music legend Travis Tritt performs live in concert in the Chinook Winds Casino Resort Showroom on April 17-18.

Tritt has received two Grammy Awards, both for Best Country Collaboration with Vocals. The first was in 1992 for The Whiskey Ain't Workin', a duet with Marty Stuart, and again in 1998 for Same Old Train, a collaboration with Stuart and nine other artists.

In addition, Tritt has received four awards from the Country Music Association and has been a member of the Grand Ole Opry since 1992.

"I feel so humbled and blessed to be where I am right now," said Tritt, who will release his new album on his own Post Oak Records. "My voice has never been stronger, I'm constantly playing and working to become a better guitar player, banjo player, vocalist and songwriter. I am honestly as excited about the creative process and performing now as I was the day I signed my first record deal."

Tritt incorporated lifelong influences of southern rock, blues and gospel into his country sound during a honky-tonk apprenticeship that led him to Warner Bros. His 1990 debut Country Club and its succession of hits put him in the vanguard of the genre's early '90s boom.

At the same time, his conspicuous lack of a cowboy hat and musical aggressiveness set him apart. The next eight albums and scores of hit singles led him to amass more than 25 million in career album sales, two Grammys, three CMA Awards and a devoted fan base that filled venues coast to coast.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tickets range from $23.50 to $38.50.
