

The Past is Present
 presented by the
Siletz Tribal Arts and Heritage Society
 June 20, 2015
Chinook Winds Casino Resort

Thank you!

The Siletz Tribal Arts and Heritage Society would like to thank these sponsors for supporting our June event:

- Chinook Winds Casino Resort
- Great Basin Insurance
- Egghart and Associates
- Tribal First Insurance
- Dee-Ne Gifts

Our volunteers serve to help our goal of building our museum. Volunteering can be personally and professionally rewarding. Volunteers strengthen communities. We would like to recognize these individuals for their help in making our event a success:

- |                      |                 |
|----------------------|-----------------|
| Dylan Bisson         | Shawna Gray     |
| Stephanie Chamberlin | Peter Hatch     |
| Bonnie Crawford      | Liz John        |
| Morgan Crawford      | Robert Kentta   |
| Sharon Edenfield     | Maggie McAfee   |
| Cynthia Farlow       | Phil Rilatos    |
| Tonya Fawver         | Sharla Robinson |
| Denise Garrett       | Wendy Woodside  |
| Jean Garrett         |                 |

Clockwise from above:
 Tribal Elder Ed Ben talks about the importance of keeping Siletz traditions alive.

Sharla Robinson talks to people about gathering and processing the materials used to make baskets.

Mitzi Brown discusses baskets and materials with curious attendees.

Lori Brown prepares items for basket weaving.

Nora Williams-Wood starts weaving a basket.

Photos by Diane Rodriguez

