What is a “Missing Moccasin”? This is a Tribal member who has an invalid address on file with the Siletz Enrollment Department. The Enrollment Department has received mail back for the Tribal member as undeliverable.

Enrollment staff will attempt to contact the Tribal member at the most recently provided phone number. Once it is determined there is no way to get a message to the Tribal member, he/she will be added to the Missing Moccasin list for publication in Siletz News.

In order to receive any mail from the Tribal administration building, including newsletters and per capita checks, the Tribal member must submit his/her address change on Enrollment’s “Tribal Member Information Change Form.”

For safety reasons, address changes are no longer accepted over the phone.

As of Aug. 19, 2015, there are 48 ADULT Missing Moccasins. If you are on this list, please update immediately.

There are also children with invalid addresses. If you are not receiving the quarterly statements of your child’s trust account, he/she may have an invalid address on file. Children’s names are not publicly published, however there are 99 CHILDREN Missing Moccasins.
