Received in an email from Brian Billie

Today (July 26) I went to Tacoma to play Special Olympics golf tournament and I did a great job for skills competition for my first time ever in my life. I got 4th place in the tournament. I am not going to state for Special Olympics this year, but I already set my mind to it for next year to try to make it to state.

From now until next year, I will be working hard to improve my golf skills where I will be ready go back to the tournament and hopefully take 1st place.

In September, I will be having another golf tournament in Ocean Shores, Wash.

I think you guys able to make it to the tournament. I don't have the date or time yet. When I do, I will send out an email out to you all so you can make it out there and come watch me play.

I've just been very proud of myself, how well I did today. 4th place is not bad at all. I was hoping for 3rd place, but need to do some work.

Have a good evening and week.

Editor's note: In addition to his Special Olympics activities, Billie attends Greys Harbor Community College.
